Re: No. 10-4119, Pietrangelo v. Sandusky Library

Dear Mr. Pietrangelo,

In light of your letter dated September 21, 2010, I asked the court's staff attorneys who review jurisdiction to take a second look at this case to see if it arises from an amended notice of appeal as that term of art is used in Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(4). Their conclusion is that it is not an amended notice of appeal as defined by Rule 4(a)(4), which means that the clerk's office correctly docketed this appeal and a filing fee is due. The filing fee should be paid to the Clerk of the District Court within 14 days.

Once the filing fee is paid, the appeals will be consolidated and the clerk's office will issue a briefing schedule for the consolidated case. If the filing fee is not paid, then this appeal will be dismissed for want of prosecution and case no. 10-3843 will proceed by itself.

Sincerely yours,

Janice E. Yates
Chief Deputy Clerk
