No. 08-3434

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff-Appellee,

v.

TERRANCE LITTLES,
Defendant-Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District
Court for the Northern District of Indiana,
Hammond Division.

No. 07 CR 106

James T. Moody,
Judge.

ORDER

Terrance Littles sold crack to an informant, and afterward the police searched him and his truck and found more crack and the buy money, as well as guns, ammunition, and marijuana. Facing a six-count indictment, Littles agreed to plead guilty to one count of possessing a firearm after a felony conviction, see 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1). In exchange for that plea and a written waiver of appeal, the government dismissed the other charges. Littles already had a string of convictions that qualified him as an armed career criminal, and the district court sentenced him to 180 months, the statutory minimum. See 18 U.S.C. § 924(e)(1). Littles filed a notice of appeal, but his appointed counsel now seeks to withdraw because he cannot discern a nonfrivolous basis for appeal. See Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). Little opposes counsel's submission. See CIR. R. 51(b).

Little wants to challenge his prison sentence, but he does not seek to undermine his guilty plea. Counsel thus appropriately omits any discussion about the adequacy of the plea colloquy, see FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(b), or the voluntariness of the guilty plea. See United States v. Knox, 287 F.3d 667, 670-71 (7th Cir. 2002). And since the appeal waiver in the plea agreement stands or falls with the guilty plea, United States v. Wilson, 481 F.3d 475, 483 (7th Cir. 2007); United States v. Hare, 269 F.3d 859, 860-61 (7th Cir. 2001), any appellate issue concerning Little's sentence would be frivolous.

Accordingly, we GRANT counsel's motion to withdraw and DISMISS the appeal.
