PER CURIAM.

North Dakota inmate Anthony James Moore appeals the district court's <sup>1</sup> adverse grant of summary judgment in his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 lawsuit. Having conducted de novo review of the record and considered the parties' arguments, we find no basis for reversing the district court's well-reasoned opinion. See Murphy v. Mo. Dep't of Corr., 372 F.3d 979, 982 (8th Cir.), cert. denied, 543 U.S. 991 (2004) (standard of review). We also find no abuse of discretion in the district court's denial of Moore's requests for an independent medical examination, see Ledford v. Sullivan, 105 F.3d 354, 358-59 (7th Cir. 1997) (given particular factual issues in case, determining deliberate indifference was not so complicated that expert was required to establish inmate's case), and the appointment of a medical expert, cf. Sanden v. Mayo Clinic, 495 F.2d 221, 225 (8th Cir. 1974) (manner and conditions of court-ordered medical examination, and designation of person to conduct examination, are vested in sound discretion of district court).

Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B. We also deny Moore's pending motions.
