PER CURIAM.

Yamil Rivera-Kader appeals the district court's<sup>1</sup> order denying his petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the government to file a Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 35(b) motion to reduce his sentence for substantial assistance.

The district court did not abuse its discretion: among other reasons, Rivera-Kader failed to establish that he had a clear and indisputable right to a Rule 35(b) motion because his plea agreement reserved to the government the discretion whether to file such a motion. See In re MidAmerican Energy Co., 286 F.3d 483, 486 (8th Cir. 2002) (per curiam) (standard of review); In re SDDS, Inc., 97 F.3d 1030, 1034 (8th Cir. 1996). Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
