Before WOLLMAN, SMITH, and GRUENDER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Dwight Alexander appeals the district court's¹ dismissal without prejudice of his civil action. Because Alexander's timely motions to vacate remain pending in the district court, his notice of appeal is not yet effective. See Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(4)(B)(i). Accordingly, we dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction, without prejudice to appellant's timely filing of a new notice of appeal after the district court rules on his pending motions. See Parkus v. Delo, 985 F.2d 425, 426 (8th Cir. 1993). We deny as moot Alexander's motion to supplement the record on appeal.

¹The Honorable Susan Webber Wright, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas.
