Appeal from United States District Court for the District of Minnesota - Minneapolis
Submitted: April 2, 2013 Filed: April 5, 2013 [Unpublished]
Before WOLLMAN, BOWMAN, and GRUENDER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Yahui Song appeals the judgment of the District Court¹ granting defendants' motion to dismiss her civil action under Rule 37 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure after she failed to comply with an earlier order granting defendants' motion to compel discovery and admonishing her that noncompliance could result in dismissal. Following careful review, we find no abuse of discretion. See In re O'Brien, 351 F.3d 832, 836, 839–40 (8th Cir. 2003) (standard of review; in context of Rule 37 motions, court may find willful disobedience sufficient to support dismissal when party employs delay tactics and disregards court orders). Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons provided by the District Court. See 8th Cir. R. 47B. We also deny all of the pending motions.
