

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 12-3552

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Allen Brown, Jr., also known as AWAC

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri - St. Louis

Submitted: August 27, 2013

Filed: August 27, 2013

[Unpublished]

Before WOLLMAN, GRUENDER, and BENTON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Allen Brown, Jr. directly appeals the within-Guidelines-range sentence the district court¹ imposed after he pled guilty to a firearm offense. His counsel has filed a brief under Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), requesting a review of Brown's sentence for reasonableness. Upon careful review, this court has found nothing in the record to suggest that any significant procedural error occurred at sentencing or that the district court imposed a substantively unreasonable sentence. See United States v. Feemster, 572 F.3d 455, 460-62 (8th Cir. 2009) (en banc) (when reviewing sentences, appellate court applies deferential abuse-of-discretion standard, ensuring that district court did not commit significant procedural error or impose substantively unreasonable sentence; if sentence is within Guidelines range, appellate court may, but is not required to, apply presumption of reasonableness).

¹The Honorable Jean C. Hamilton, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Missouri.

This court has reviewed the record pursuant to Penon v. Ohio, 488 U.S. 75 (1988), and found no nonfrivolous issues for appeal.

Counsel's motion to withdraw is granted, and the judgment is affirmed. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
