Dear Counsel:

The court today issued an opinion in these cases.

Please review Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and the Eighth Circuit Rules on post-submission procedure to ensure that any filing is timely and in compliance with the rules. Pursuant to FRAP 19, the agency shall file with the clerk and serve upon respondent a proposed judgment in conformity with the opinion. Objections to proposed judgments must be serviced upon the agency and filed with the clerk within seven days thereafter. Proposed judgments are not afforded a grace period for mailing.

Times for filing petitions for rehearing, fees and costs are measured from the date judgment is entered by this court and do not apply at this time.
