

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 13-3511

Lennie R. Senter

Plaintiff - Appellant

v.

Stericycle, Inc.

Defendant - Appellee

Appeal from United States District Court for the District of Minnesota - Minneapolis

Submitted: July 7, 2014

Filed: July 11, 2014

[Unpublished]

Before BYE, COLLOTON, and BENTON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Lennie R. Senter appeals the district court's¹ adverse grant of summary judgment in his Title VII action against his former employer, Stericycle, Inc.

¹The Honorable Richard H. Kyle, United States District Judge for the District of Minnesota.

(Stericycle). Upon de novo review, we agree with the district court that Stericycle met its burden of showing that there were no genuine issues of material fact, and that it was entitled to judgment as a matter of law on Senter's claims that he was subjected to racial harassment and discrimination, and that he suffered retaliation in violation of Title VII. See Whisenhunt v. Sw. Bell Tel., 573 F.3d 565, 568 (8th Cir. 2009). The judgment of the district court is affirmed. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
