

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 13-3628

Donald Ray Copley

Plaintiff - Appellant

v.

State of Missouri

Defendant - Appellee

Appeal from United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri - Kansas City

Submitted: July 18, 2014
Filed: July 28, 2014
[Unpublished]

Before BYE, SMITH, and KELLY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Donald Copley appeals after the district court¹ dismissed his civil action, and denied his post-judgment motion.² We deny Copley's pending motions for a transcript and a change of venue; and following our careful review of the record before us, we conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion in denying the post-judgment motion, because Copley did not present circumstances justifying relief. See In re Guidant Corp. Implantable Defibrillators Prod. Liab. Litig., 496 F.3d 863, 866 (8th Cir. 2007) (standard of review).

Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

¹The Honorable Brian C. Wimes, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri.

²The appeal was dismissed as untimely as to the entry of final judgment, and has been allowed to proceed only as to the order denying post-judgment relief.
