Appeal from United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas - Helena

Submitted: August 22, 2014

Filed: August 29, 2014

[Unpublished]

Before WOLLMAN, GRUENDER, and SHEPHERD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Carl Turner appeals the district court's¹ adverse grant of summary judgment in his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action. Having viewed the record in favor of Turner as the nonmoving party, we conclude, upon careful de novo review, that the district court correctly determined that there was no genuine issue of material fact and that the defendants were entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See Joseph v. Allen, 712 F.3d 1222, 1225 (8th Cir. 2013) (this court reviews district court's grant of summary judgment de novo, viewing all evidence and drawing all reasonable inferences in favor of nonmoving party; summary judgment is proper when there is no genuine issue of material fact and moving party is entitled to judgment as matter of law). Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

¹The Honorable D. P. Marshall Jr., United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas, adopting the report and recommendations of the Honorable Jerome T. Kearney, United States Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas.
