

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 15-1257

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Ryan Siders

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Northern District of Iowa - Cedar Rapids

Submitted: March 14, 2016

Filed: March 17, 2016

[Unpublished]

Before MURPHY, BEAM, and GRUENDER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

In 2008 Ryan Siders pled guilty to being a felon in possession of a firearm and was sentenced to 57 months imprisonment and a three year term of supervised release. In 2015 the district court¹ found Siders in violation of his supervised release for the third time after he failed to comply with substance abuse testing, used a controlled substance, consumed alcohol, and operated a motor vehicle while intoxicated. The court revoked his supervised release. The advisory guidelines sentencing range was 8 to 14 months. The court imposed a sentence of 12 months imprisonment and one year of supervised release.

Siders argues that the court imposed a substantively unreasonable sentence under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). We conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion in the sentence it imposed. See United States v. Petreikis, 551 F.3d 822, 824 (8th Cir. 2009) (standard of review). Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
