PER CURIAM.

Scott and Janelle Bollman, parents and next friends of L.B., a minor, appeal the district court's<sup>1</sup> adverse grant of summary judgment in their action under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. See 42 U.S.C. § 2000d (no person in United States shall, on ground of color, race, or national origin, be excluded from participating in, denied benefits of, or discriminated against under any federally funded program or activity). Based on a de novo review of the record, see Mumid v. Abraham Lincoln High Sch., 618 F.3d 789, 793 (8th Cir. 2010), we find that even assuming the complained-of conduct amounted to severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive harassment of L.B. based on his race and national origin, there were no jury issues on whether Greenwood School District was deliberately indifferent to any such harassment of which there was actual notice. See Zeno v. Pine Plains Cent. Sch. Dist., 702 F.3d 655, 666 (2d Cir. 2012) (school district's actions are deliberately indifferent only if they were clearly unreasonable based on known circumstances). The judgment of the district court is affirmed.
