Appeal from United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas - Helena

Submitted: May 6, 2016

Filed: May 13, 2016

[Unpublished]

Before LOKEN, BYE, and KELLY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Claud Gaines appeals the district court's¹ adverse grant of summary judgment in his pro se employment-discrimination action. The district court entered judgment against him on July 16, 2015. His notice of appeal was filed on August 24, 2015, more than 30 days later. See Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(1)(A) (30 days to appeal in civil case), 26(a) (computing time). This court therefore lacks jurisdiction over this untimely appeal. See Dieser v. Cont'l Cas. Co., 440 F.3d 920, 923 (8th Cir. 2006) (requirement of timely NOA is mandatory and jurisdictional; federal court will raise jurisdiction issues sua sponte). Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.

¹The Honorable D.P. Marshall, Jr., United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas.
