

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 16-3951

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Paul Vigliotti

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Northern District of Iowa - Cedar Rapids

Submitted: April 14, 2017

Filed: April 19, 2017

[Unpublished]

Before RILEY, MURPHY, and SHEPHERD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Paul Vigliotti directly appeals the sentence the district court¹ imposed upon revoking his supervised release. His revocation sentence is composed of a ten-month prison term, plus a ten-year term of supervised release, with conditions. His counsel has moved for leave to withdraw, and has filed a brief challenging Vigliotti's supervised-release term as unduly long. Vigliotti has filed a pro se brief challenging two special conditions of supervised release, and also challenging the length of his supervised-release term.

After careful review of the record, we conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion in imposing Vigliotti's revocation sentence, including the challenged aspects of the supervised release. See United States v. Asalati, 615 F.3d 1001, 1006-07 (8th Cir. 2010) (standard of review for substantive reasonableness of length of supervision); United States v. Simons, 614 F.3d 475, 478-79 (8th Cir. 2010) (standard of review for imposition of special conditions of supervised release). We affirm the judgment, and we grant counsel's motion to withdraw.
