[Unpublished]

Before GRUENDER, MURPHY, and SHEPHERD, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

In this 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action, Arkansas Department of Correction inmate Edward Thurman appeals after the district court¹ adversely disposed of all of his claims, including dismissing some of his claims without prejudice for failure to exhaust administrative remedies. Also before the panel are Thurman's motions for appointment of counsel and for admission and production of documents.

After careful review, we conclude that the district court appropriately disposed of Thurman's claims. See, e.g., King v. Iowa Dep't of Corr., 598 F.3d 1051, 1052 (8th Cir. 2010) (reviewing de novo dismissal for failure to exhaust administrative remedies). Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B. We also deny Thurman's pending motions as moot.

¹The Honorable D. P. Marshall Jr., United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas, adopting the report and recommendations of the Honorable Beth Deere, United States Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas.
