

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 17-3669

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Robert Brown

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri - Springfield

Submitted: April 19, 2019

Filed: July 25, 2019

[Unpublished]

Before LOKEN, WOLLMAN, and STRAS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Robert Brown received an 84-month prison sentence for possessing a firearm as a felon. 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1), 924(a)(2). On appeal, he argues that the district court¹ erroneously counted a prior Missouri conviction of second-degree robbery as a “crime of violence,” which had the effect of increasing his base offense level under the Sentencing Guidelines. See U.S.S.G. §§ 2K2.1(a)(4)(A), 4B1.2(a). In United States v. Parker, No. 17-3732, 2019 WL 2932190 (8th Cir. July 9, 2019) (published), we recently addressed this argument and reached a contrary conclusion. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

¹The Honorable Stephen R. Bough, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri.
