

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 18-1682

Ruth Richter

Plaintiff - Appellant

v.

Commissioner, Social Security Administration

Defendant - Appellee

Appeal from United States District Court for the District of Nebraska - Omaha

Submitted: October 30, 2018

Filed: November 5, 2018

[Unpublished]

Before COLLOTON, BOWMAN, and KELLY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Ruth Richter appeals from the order of the District Court¹ granting the Social Security Administration Commissioner's motion to dismiss her civil action arising from the 1999 termination of her supplemental security income. We have thoroughly reviewed the record and find no error warranting reversal. See Jenkins v. Kansas City Mo. Sch. Dist., 516 F.3d 1074, 1080 (8th Cir. 2008) (“We review issues of subject matter jurisdiction de novo.”). Accordingly, we affirm the judgment. See 8th Cir. R. 47B. We deny as moot the Commissioner’s pending motion to dismiss.

¹The Honorable Richard G. Kopf, United States District Judge for the District of Nebraska.
