

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 19-1255

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Todd Roger Farver

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa - Des Moines

Submitted: September 6, 2019

Filed: September 13, 2019

[Unpublished]

Before LOKEN, GRUENDER, and KOBES, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Todd Farver appeals the sentence the district court¹ imposed after he pleaded guilty to a child pornography offense. His counsel has moved to withdraw and has filed a brief under Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), challenging the substantive reasonableness of the sentence.

After careful review, we conclude that the district court did not impose an unreasonable sentence. The court properly considered the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), and there is no indication that the court considered an improper or irrelevant factor or committed a clear error in weighing relevant factors. See United States v. Salazar-Aleman, 741 F.3d 878, 881 (8th Cir. 2013) (discussing appellate review of sentencing decisions). Further, the court imposed a sentence within the calculated guidelines imprisonment range. See United States v. Callaway, 762 F.3d 754, 760 (8th Cir. 2014) (stating that a within-guidelines-range sentence is presumed reasonable).

Having independently reviewed the record under Penson v. Ohio, 488 U.S. 75 (1988), we find no non-frivolous issues for appeal. Accordingly, we grant counsel's motion and affirm.
