

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 19-2436

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Carl S. Reeder

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri - Kansas City

Submitted: November 15, 2019

Filed: November 26, 2019

[Unpublished]

Before SHEPHERD, KELLY, and ERICKSON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Carl Reeder appeals the judgment of the district court¹ revoking his supervised release and sentencing him to seven months in prison and two years of supervised release, with additional special conditions which Reeder has not challenged.

Following careful review of the record, we conclude that the district court imposed a substantively reasonable sentence. See United States v. McGhee, 869 F.3d 703, 705-06 (8th Cir. 2017) (per curiam). There is no indication that the district court overlooked a relevant factor, gave significant weight to an improper or irrelevant factor, or committed a clear error of judgment in weighing relevant factors. See United States v. Feemster, 572 F.3d 455, 461 (8th Cir. 2009) (en banc).

We affirm the judgment of the district court and grant counsel leave to withdraw.

¹The Honorable Roseann A. Ketchmark, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri.
