Before LOKEN, KELLY, and KOBES, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Federal prisoner Donald Turner appeals his reduced sentence after the district court<sup>1</sup> granted his motion for a sentence reduction under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A)(i).

He argues on appeal that the modified sentence is substantively unreasonable, as the court should have reduced the sentence further. Upon careful review, we conclude that the court did not abuse its discretion, as the appropriate sentence reduction is within the district court's discretion, and the court adequately considered the relevant sentencing factors and the parties' arguments. See United States v. Davis, 19 F.4th 1083, 1086 (8th Cir. 2021) (per curiam); United States v. Rodd, 966 F.3d 740, 748 (8th Cir. 2020).

Accordingly, we affirm. We also grant counsel's motion to withdraw.
