United States of America,

Plaintiff - Appellee,

v.

Robert Joseph Rosso, Jr.,

Defendant - Appellant.

PER CURIAM.

Robert Rosso, Jr. appeals after the district court<sup>1</sup> revoked his supervised release and sentenced him to time served and 3 years of supervised release. His counsel has moved to withdraw, and has filed a brief challenging the revocation. Rosso has filed a pro se brief also challenging the revocation.

Because Rosso did not challenge the revocation in the district court, this court's review is for plain error. See United States v. Snow, 949 F.3d 1094, 1096 (8th Cir. 2020). After a careful review of the record, we conclude that the district court did not plainly err by revoking Rosso's supervised release. Accordingly, we grant counsel's motion to withdraw, and affirm.
