Jim,

The Finnegan, Boies and O'Shea firms request the extension because several people who would be tasked with preparing the oppositions are otherwise occupied and would be unable to complete them in time such that they could be filed consistent with the current due date of January 30. We expect to make our application to the Ninth Circuit today, but would appreciate your response as soon as you can provide it.

Scott

I just found out that I will be unable to speak to my client today. So it will be Monday when I respond.

Jim,

Thanks for returning my call yesterday. On behalf of my firm, and the Boies and O'Shea firms, I requested a 2 week extension to file responding papers to your Ninth Circuit motion to disqualify. I believe you responded that you did not anticipate this would be a problem (which I understood to mean that you would likely agree to this request), but that you wanted to check with your client. I believe you indicated you would respond to me today, January 23. Please let me know your response.

Thanks
