David Azar

Practice Areas
Antitrust Litigation
Securities Litigation
Derivative Litigation

Mr. Azar focuses his practice on antitrust, corporate governance, securities fraud class actions, and selected general business litigation matters. Mr. Azar has significant litigation experience, including first-chair trial and appellate work. His experience with corporate governance issues includes spending a year clerking for Chief Justice Veasey of the Delaware Supreme Court.

Mr. Azar's current representative matters include: serving as co-lead counsel in multi-district litigation against Korean Air and Asiana Airlines for allegedly conspiring for more than six years to set prices for passenger airfares between the United States and Korea; serving as co-lead counsel in a class action against Wells Fargo Bank and Bank of New York Mellon for their alleged roles, as trustees, in causing more than $1 billion in losses by investors in Medical Capital Holdings, Inc.; serving as co-lead counsel in a shareholder class action against the board of directors of International Rectifier Corporation for allegedly breaching their fiduciary duties by, among other things, blocking shareholders from accepting a premium tender offer for their shares; and representing a financial institution seeking to recover for breaches of contract and mortgage fraud against various individuals and entities.

Mr. Azar serves as a volunteer prosecutor through the Los Angeles Bar Association's Trial Advocacy Project, and has been named by Los Angeles Magazine as a Southern California Super Lawyers Rising Star. He serves on the pro bono panel of the Harriett Buhai Center for Family Law, and he was awarded a Distinguished Service Award in 2009 for his continuing representation of a disabled father in a complex family law matter. Mr. Azar's pro bono work has also included: prevailing at trial in a case on behalf of a learning disabled student asserting claims under the American with Disabilities Act; successfully persuading the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals to allow a disabled prisoner's federal civil rights case to proceed, resulting in a published decision on a matter of first impression; and assisting tenants in disputes with their landlords.

Mr. Azar has extensive knowledge of dispute resolution, having served as a mediator in more than 160 cases, and he has trained and reviewed other mediators. He served for five years as the editor of the quarterly publication of the Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution, and was honored with the association's Presidential Recognition award.
