IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

The Facebook, Inc., et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
ConnectU, Inc., et al.,
Defendants.

NO. C 07-01389 JW

ORDER DENYING THE CONNECTU
FOUNDERS’ MOTION TO INTERVENE;
DENYING CONNECTU’S MOTION TO STAY EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT

I. INTRODUCTION

Initially, Plaintiffs the Facebook, Inc. and Mark Zuckerberg (collectively, “Facebook”) brought this action against ConnectU, Inc. (“ConnectU”), Pacific Northwest Software, Inc., Winston Williams, and Wayne Chang alleging, inter alia, misappropriation of trade secrets, unfair competition, and violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1030, et seq. The parties were engaged in at least two other lawsuits over these matters; in those cases, ConnectU and its founders, Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss, and Divya Narendra (collectively, the “ConnectU Founders”), were plaintiffs and Facebook was a defendant. Based on a series of events and motions, on July 2, 2008, the Court entered Judgment enforcing a settlement agreement between the parties to all of the actions. (hereafter, “Judgment,” Docket Item No. 476.)

1 Presently before the Court are the ConnectU Founders' Motion to Intervene¹ and ConnectU's
2 Motion to Stay Execution of Judgment.² The Court conducted a hearing on August 6, 2008. Based
3 on the papers submitted to date and oral argument of counsel, the Court DENIES the ConnectU
4 Founders' Motion to Intervene on the ground that they have already been made parties to this action.
5 However, the Court GRANTS them an extension of time in which to file their appeal. Further, the 6 Court DENIES ConnectU's Motion to Stay Execution of Judgment.

7 II. DISCUSSION

8 A. Motion to Intervene

9 The ConnectU Founders move to intervene on the grounds that they have a real economic 10 stake in the outcome of this case and ConnectU will not sufficiently protect their interests.
11 (Intervene Motion at 4, 6.) The Judgment in this case treats the ConnectU Founders as parties; it
12 orders them and the other signatories to take action to comply with the Term Sheet and Settlement
13 Agreement ("Settlement Agreement"). Therefore, before reaching the necessity of allowing them to 14 intervene, the Court reviews the ConnectU Founders' status as existing parties to this action and to 15 the other lawsuits covered by the Settlement Agreement.

16 The Ninth Circuit has held that when a federal court has a basis for jurisdiction over a 17 dispute involving a final settlement agreement, the court may "interpret and apply its own judgment
18 to the future conduct contemplated" by a agreement. See Flanagan v. Arnaiz, 143 F.3d 540, 544-45
19 (9th Cir. 1998). The requisite independent basis for jurisdiction may be supplied by a provision in 20 the settlement agreement. Id. at 544. Such a provision, "empowers a district court to protect its 21 judgment" from subsequent attempts to frustrate "the purpose of the settlement agreement and 22 order." Sandpiper Village Condominium Ass'n., Inc. v. Louisiana-Pacific Corp., 428 F.3d 831, 841

23
24

26 ² (hereafter, "Stay Motion," Docket Item No. 578.). Subject to being permitted to intervene,
27 the ConnectU Founders join in the Motion to Stay Enforcement.

1 (9th Cir. 2005). Under this power, individuals may be bound to take actions as long as they had 2 notice and an ability to contest the judgment or order enforcing the settlement agreement. See id.

3 On August 8, 2007, the ConnectU Founders and ConnectU, Inc., were named Plaintiffs in a
4 First Amended Complaint in Civil Action No. 1:07-CV-10593-DPW pending in the District of 5 Massachusetts. The Facebook, Inc., Mark Zuckerberg and others were named as Defendants in that 6 action. In this action, Facebook and Mark Zuckerberg have been named as Plaintiffs and 7 ConnectU, Inc., has been named as a Defendant. Although the ConnectU Founders were named in 8 a Second Amended Complaint in this case, the Court found that it lacked personal jurisdiction over
9 them and dismissed them. (See Docket Item Nos. 136, 232.)

10 On February 22, 2008, the parties entered into a Settlement Agreement, and the ConnectU
11 Founders individually obligated themselves to perform the terms of the agreement. Among the 12 obligations undertaken by the ConnectU Founders were agreements to dismiss the Massachusetts
13 action and to give mutual releases as broad as possible.³ Notably, the ConnectU Founders expressly
14 stipulated to the jurisdiction of this Court for the limited purpose of enforcement of the agreement.
15 (Id.)

16 On April 23, 2008, Facebook filed a motion before this Court to enforce the agreement
17 against the parties to the agreement (“Enforcement Motion”), because disputes arose among the 18 parties with respect to execution of the agreement. (Docket Item No. 329.) Rather than file the 19 Enforcement Motion as a new ancillary proceeding, the motion was filed in this action. As noted
20 above, the ConnectU Founders were not existing parties to this action before the Enforcement
21 Motion was filed because they had been dismissed. Nevertheless, the motion sought enforcement
22 against the ConnectU Founders and ConnectU, Inc., because in the agreement, each of the Founders
23 submitted to the jurisdiction of this Court to enforce the agreement. (Enforcement Order at 3; see 24 Declaration of I. Neel Chatterjee, Ex. F, hereafter, “Chatterjee Decl.,” Docket Item No. 596.)

25
26 ³ (Order Granting Plaintiffs’ Confidential Motion to Enforce the Settlement Agreement at 3, 27 hereafter, “Enforcement Order,” Docket Item No. 461.)

1 Notice of the Enforcement Motion was given to counsel for the ConnectU Founders. This 2 was accomplished by filing a notice of the motion in the Massachusetts action in which the 3 ConnectU Founders were parties and by serving that notice on counsel for the ConnectU Founders
4 in the Massachusetts action. (Enforcement Order at 5; Chatterjee Decl., Ex. G.) At a hearing in the 5 Massachusetts action, the parties acknowledged they were aware of the proceedings in this Court.
6 (Id., Chatterjee Decl., Ex. H.)

7 At the hearing on the Enforcement Motion in this case, the Court raised a question with 8 respect to enforcement against the individuals who, although signatories to the agreement, were not 9 formal parties to the present action. (Transcript of Hearing at 74-75.) Counsel for Facebook took 10 the position that the ConnectU Founders had consented to jurisdiction and that on that basis, the 11 Court could proceed to enter judgment enforcing the agreement against them. (Id.) Counsel for the 12 ConnectU Founders made an appearance at the hearing. Their counsel described the status of the 13 Massachusetts' litigation but otherwise did not object to jurisdiction. (Id.) Thus, like ConnectU,
14 Inc., the ConnectU Founders are parties for purposes of proceedings to enforce the Settlement
15 Agreement.

16 In its Enforcement Order, the Court ordered the parties to appear for a hearing and to show
17 cause why a judgment should not be entered ordering the signatories to take actions required of them
18 by the Settlement Agreement. (Enforcement Order at 12.) In its Order, the Court specifically cited
19 the ConnectU Founders' consent to jurisdiction and their receipt of notice of the Enforcement
20 Motion as the basis for the exercise of personal jurisdiction to enforce the agreement against them.
21 (Id.) A copy of the Order to Show Cause was served on counsel for all signatories to the agreement,
22 including counsel for the ConnectU Founders.⁴

23

24

25 ⁴ The service list shows that attorney Scott Mosko of the Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow
26 was served. (Enforcement Order, certificate of service page.) The Finnegan firm previously
27 represented the ConnectU Founders in this action prior to their dismissal; however, the Finnegan
28 firm has represented ConnectU, Inc., since the commencement of this lawsuit and has represented
ConnectU, Inc., and the ConnectU Founders since the commencement of the Massachusetts actions.

28

1 On July 2, 2008, a show cause hearing was held. Counsel for all signatories to the agreement
2 appeared, including counsel for the ConnectU Founders. (See n.4, supra.) After the hearing, the 3 Court entered Judgment Enforcing the Settlement Agreement against all the signatories to the 4 agreement and appointed a Special Master to perform steps necessary to enforce the agreement.
5 (Judgment at 1-2; Notice of Appointment of a Master; Nomination of Individual to Serve as Master,
6 Docket Item No. 475.) Among others, the Judgment ordered the ConnectU Founders to perform acts
7 necessary to comply with the Judgment with respect to this action and the Massachusetts action.
8 (Judgment at 3.)

9 In sum, the Court confirms its previous finding that the Motion to Enforce the Term Sheet
10 and Settlement Agreement, although filed under a case number in which the ConnectU Founders
11 were not already parties, was an ancillary proceeding in which Facebook and Zuckerberg were 12 nominal Plaintiffs and ConnectU and the ConnectU Founders were nominal Defendants. As the 13 Supreme Court has noted, “[e]nforcement of [a] settlement agreement . . . whether through award of 14 damages or decree of specific performance, is more than just a continuation or renewal” of 15 underlying proceedings. Kokkonen v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of America, 511 U.S. 375, 378 (1994).
16 Although the ConnectU Founders were not made parties by virtue of being served with a summons
17 and complaint, as signatories to the Settlement Agreement they consented to personal jurisdiction
18 being exercised over them by this Court and to proceedings limited to enforcement of the agreement.
19 The ConnectU Founders had fair notice that Facebook sought enforcement of the agreement through 20 a motion, and they had ample opportunity to oppose that motion. Through counsel, the ConnectU
21 Founders participated in and were aware of these proceedings. Thus, the Judgment enforcing the 22 Settlement Agreement is binding on them and they may appeal that Judgment.⁵

23

26 ⁵ The Court notes that even a non-party may be permitted to appeal when “(1) the appellant, 27 though not a party, participated in the district court proceedings, and (2) the equities of the case weigh in favor of hearing the appeal.” Bank of Am. v. M/V Executive, 797 F.2d 772, 774 (9th Cir.
1986).

1 Accordingly, the Court DENIES the motion to intervene as unnecessary because the
2 ConnectU Founders are already parties to these proceedings to enforce the Settlement Agreement.
3 The unique procedural posture of the case, however, persuades the Court to grant the ConnectU
4 Founders additional time to appeal for good cause shown pursuant to Rule 4(a)(5) of Federal Rules
5 of Appellate Procedure.

6 The Court addresses separately the proposed Complaint in Intervention. With their motion
7 to intervene, the ConnectU Founders have tendered a Complaint in Intervention which essentially
8 seeks to relitigate the issues concerning the enforceability of the Settlement Agreement. (See 9 Docket Item No. 577.) The Court addressed these issues at a hearing before granting Facebook's
10 motion to enforce the settlement and entering Judgment. As parties to the case, parties may tender
11 pleadings. However, at this procedural stage, the Court finds that the Complaint in Intervention is 12 improper because intervention is unnecessary. Further, if the Complaint in Intervention is allowed 13 to be filed after Judgment, it would re-open matters covered by the Judgment; this would be 14 improper unless or until the Judgment is set aside and new pleadings are allowed by the Court.
15 Accordingly, the Court STRIKES the ConnectU Founders' Complaint in Intervention.

16 B. Motion to Stay

17 ConnectU moves to stay enforcement of the Judgment entered by the Court on the grounds
18 that it may be irreparably harmed and the balance of hardships tips in its favor. (Stay Motion at 5, 19 7.)

20 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 62(d), which provides for a stay upon court approval of a 21 supersedeas bond, pertains primarily, if not exclusively, to monetary judgments. See NLRB v.
22 Westphal, 859 F.2d 818, 819 (9th Cir. 1988). Thus, whether a district court should grant a stay of 23 the enforcement of a non-monetary judgment is governed by Rule 62(c), which provides that 24 "[w]hen an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying 25 an injunction, the court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during 26
27
28

1 the pendency of the appeal.” Spieler ex rel. Spieler v. Mt. Diablo Unified School Dist., 2007 WL
2 3245286, at *2-3 (N.D. Cal. 2007).

3 The standard for granting a stay pending appeal under Rule 62(c) is similar to that for a
4 preliminary injunction. Lopez v. Heckler, 713 F.2d 1432, 1435 (9th Cir. 1983). A party seeking a 5 stay must show “(1) whether the stay applicant has made a strong showing that he is likely to 6 succeed on the merits; (2) whether the applicant will be irreparably injured absent a stay; (3)
7 whether issuance of the stay will substantially injure the other parties interested in the proceeding;
8 and (4) where the public interest lies.” Hilton v. Braunskill, 481 U.S. 770, 776 (1987); Lopez, 713
9 F.2d at 1435. To satisfy steps (1) and (2), a court may accept proof either that the applicant has 10 shown “a strong likelihood of success on the merits [and] . . . a possibility of irreparable injury to the 11 [applicant],” or “that serious legal questions are raised and that the balance of hardships tips sharply
12 in its favor.” Golden Gate Restaurant v. City and County of San Francisco, 512 F.3d 1112, 1115-16
13 (9th Cir. 2008). When the district court has already ruled on the legal issue being appealed, the 14 court need not conclude that it is likely to be reversed on appeal in order to grant the stay. Strobel v.
15 Morgan Stanley Dean Witter, 2007 WL 1238709, at *1 (S.D. Cal. 2007). However, the court may 16 consider that delay in filing an appeal and seeking a stay vitiates the force of allegations of 17 irreparable harm. Cf. Beame v. Friends of the Earth, 434 U.S. 1310, 1313 (1977).

18 In this case, ConnectU cannot show irreparable harm from execution of the Judgment
19 because the only effect of enforcing the settlement is the transfer of ownership of ConnectU.
20 Barring evidence to the contrary, the Court presumes that Facebook has an equal interest in 21 preserving the value of ConnectU as do ConnectU’s current owners. Moreover, ConnectU filed its 22 motion seeking a stay only days before turnover of its stock was ordered to take place. This delay
23 on the part of ConnectU tends to vitiate its contention that it will be irreparably harmed. See Beame,
24 434 U.S. at 1313.

25 With respect to the issues of the balance of hardships, ConnectU contends that Facebook may 26 somehow adversely affect its right to appeal. (Stay Motion at 5-6.) However, ConnectU admits that 27
28

1 it will pursue other litigations with respect to its former counsel related to this case and incur
2 liabilities to its lawyers. Thus, the hardship upon Facebook may be equally as great if the litigation
3 diminishes the value of ConnectU. In essence, the longer the Court delays in enforcing the 4 settlement between the parties, the more likely the value of the consideration subject of the 5 settlement (i.e., the value of the stock of each company) will change. This means that the status quo
6 cannot be preserved with a stay. The Court is concerned that any further delay in enforcing the 7 settlement will create a serious risk of prejudice to Facebook, as well as to ConnectU.

8 Accordingly, the Court DENIES ConnectU's motion to stay enforcement of the Judgment
9 entered in this case.

10 III. CONCLUSION

11 The Court DENIES the ConnectU Founders' Motion to Intervene as unnecessary because 12 they have already been made parties to these proceedings by their consent and by service of the 13 Enforcement Motion. The Court STRIKES the ConnectU Founders' Complaint in Intervention.
14 The Court GRANTS the ConnectU Founders additional time in which to file an appeal. Since 15 ConnectU filed a timely Notice of Appeal on August 1, 2008, (see Docket Item No. 585), the 16 ConnectU Founders shall have until August 22, 2008 to file their appeal.

17 The Court DENIES ConnectU's Motion to Stay Execution of Judgment. The Judgment
18 requires that on or before August 4, 2008, ConnectU and its Founders to deposit with the Master all
19 shares of ConnectU, Inc., endorsed for transfer, and to submit legally sufficient dismissal with 20 prejudice of all cases by and between the parties pending as of the date of the Settlement Agreement.
21 (Judgment at 2.) At the hearing on these motions, it was brought to the Court's attention that while 22 Facebook and Mark Zuckerberg have complied with the Court's Judgment, ConnectU, Inc., and its 23 Founders have failed to do so. Counsel for ConnectU, Inc., and counsel for the ConnectU Founders
24 contend that since the Court had granted a hearing on the Motion to Stay Judgment just two days
25 after the due date, they had a good faith belief that they had a period of reprieve from the Judgment.

26
27
28

1 The Court finds good cause to not hold ConnectU and its Founders in contempt for failing to comply
2 with its Judgment as of August 4, 2008.

3 Accordingly, ConnectU and the ConnectU Founders shall comply with the turnover
4 requirements of the Court's July 2, 2008 Judgment Enforcing Settlement Agreement on or before
5 August 12, 2008.
