UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

APPLE INC., a California corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

PSYSTAR CORPORATION,
a Florida corporation, and DOES 1-10,
inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. CV 08-03251 WHA

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER AND [PROPOSED] ORDER

PSYSTAR CORPORATION, a Florida corporation,

Counterclaimant,

v.

APPLE INC., a California corporation,

Counterdefendant.

WHEREAS, in the course of discovery, it may be necessary for the parties or third parties to disclose personal, proprietary, or confidential information or trade secrets; and

WHEREAS, the parties do not wish unreasonably to impede or burden the discovery process but also wish to ensure the reasonable protection of such personal, proprietary, or confidential information or trade secrets;

1 IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED that:

2 1. This protective order (“Protective Order”) shall govern the production and disclosure of 3 personal, proprietary, or confidential information or trade secrets by or on behalf of any party or third 4 party through the discovery and all pretrial processes. This Protective Order is not intended to govern 5 at trial. The parties will cooperate in establishing procedures for trial and any appeal that are 6 acceptable to the Court with respect to the protection of information designated as 7 “CONFIDENTIAL” and “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” pursuant to this 8 Protective Order.

9 2. For purposes of this Protective Order, “Discovery Materials” shall include documents, 10 Software Code (as defined in Section 3, below), things or information produced pursuant to Rules 34 11 and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, responses to requests for admissions and 12 interrogatories, deposition testimony, and all other information that may be disclosed in the course of 13 discovery in this action, as well as compilations or excerpts of such materials. Discovery Materials 14 shall only be used for the prosecution and defense of this action.

15 3. To the extent production of software code becomes necessary to the prosecution or 16 defense of the litigation, “Software Code” means (a) computer instructions and data definitions that 17 are expressed in a form suitable for input to an assembler, compiler, or other translator and which 18 must be processed by an assembler, compiler, or other translator (“Source Code”) or (b) computer 19 instructions and data definitions, which have not been commercially released by Apple or Psystar, that 20 are capable of being executed by a computer without being processed by an assembler, compiler, or 21 other translator (“Executable Code”).

22 4. “Protected Material” means any Discovery Material that is designated as 23 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” as those designations
24 are defined in Sections 6 and 7 below. Protected Materials and all information extracted, excerpted, 25 compiled, or otherwise derived from such materials shall only be used for the purposes of prosecuting 26 or defending this action, including any appeals. Protected Materials shall not be used for any other 27 purpose other than those expressly identified in Section 4.

28 5. This Protective Order shall not abrogate or diminish any privilege or any contractual,

1 statutory, or other legal obligation or right of any party with respect to Discovery Materials.

2 6. Any party or third party may identify any Discovery Materials that a party or third 3 party deems to be entitled to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure by 4 designating such Discovery Materials as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Any such designation shall be made in 5 good faith. Discovery Materials so designated shall be marked “CONFIDENTIAL.” If a party or 6 third party produces Discovery Materials that it does not designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” but later 7 wishes to so designate such Discovery Materials, the disclosing party shall be entitled to do so with 8 the caveat that the provisions of this Protective Order applicable to Discovery Materials ultimately 9 designated “CONFIDENTIAL” shall not apply until and unless such designation is made. Unless 10 otherwise ordered by this Court or agreed to in writing by the party producing such information, 11 information designated “CONFIDENTIAL” shall not be revealed except as expressly provided in this 12 Protective Order.

13 7. If any party or third party believes that disclosure of Discovery Materials would affect 14 its competitive position, security interests, intellectual properties, or technological developments in an 15 adverse manner, that party or third party may designate the Discovery Materials as 16 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” The designation of “CONFIDENTIAL – 17 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall be limited to Discovery Materials that the disclosing party in 18 good faith believes contain extremely sensitive confidential information, the disclosure of which 19 would create a substantial risk of serious competitive injury. Any such designation shall be made in 20 good faith. If a party or third party produces Discovery Materials that it does not designate as 21 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” but later wishes to so designate such Discovery 22 Materials, the disclosing party shall be entitled to do so with the caveat that the provisions of this 23 Protective Order applicable to Discovery Materials ultimately designated “CONFIDENTIAL – 24 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not apply until and unless such designation is made. Unless 25 otherwise ordered by this Court or agreed to in writing by the party producing such information,
26 information designated “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not be revealed 27 except as expressly provided in this Protective Order.

28 8. In the event that a party or third party makes documents or things available for

1 inspection rather than delivering copies of documents or tangible things to another party, no marking 2 need be made in advance of the initial inspection. For purposes of the initial inspection, all Discovery
3 Materials shall be considered as having been marked at least “CONFIDENTIAL” unless otherwise
4 designated by the producing party as being subject to a “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES 5 ONLY” designation or not subject to any designation otherwise governed by this Protective Order.
6 Deposition transcript pages may be designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – 7 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” within two weeks of receipt of the transcript if not otherwise 8 designated earlier and shall be deemed to have been designated “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ 9 EYES ONLY” in their entirety until those two weeks have elapsed. Testimony may also be 10 designated on the record of any deposition as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – 11 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

12 9. Access to Protected Materials shall be restricted in accordance with the following 13 provisions and paragraphs 10 through 12, below:

14 (a) Discovery Materials designated “CONFIDENTIAL” may be disclosed to 15 outside attorneys representing the parties in this lawsuit (“Counsel of Record”) and to no more 16 than two (2) full-time employees with settlement authority selected by each party. Any and all 17 further disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Discovery Materials shall be governed by the 18 provisions of subparagraphs (c) - (g) and paragraphs 11 and 12, below.

19 (b) Discovery Materials designated “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES 20 ONLY” may be disclosed only to Counsel of Record. Any and all further disclosure of 21 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials shall be governed 22 by the provisions of subparagraphs (c) - (g) and paragraphs 11 and 12, below.

23 (c) No copies, extracts, or summaries of any “CONFIDENTIAL” or 24 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials shall be made 25 except by or on behalf of Counsel of Record. Any such copies, extracts, or summaries shall 26 also be designated and treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ 27 EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials and shall not be delivered or exhibited to any persons 28 except as provided by this Protective Order.

1 (d) Counsel of Record may also allow access to “CONFIDENTIAL” and 2 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials produced by another 3 party to the following:

4 (1) Court reporters, stenographers, and videographers retained to record 5 testimony taken in this action;

6 (2) The Court, jury, and Court personnel;

7 (3) Graphics, translation, design, and/or trial consulting services including 8 mock jurors retained by a party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 9 litigation, provided that each such person, including their staff, has signed the 10 acknowledgement form annexed hereto as Exhibit A reflecting their agreement to be 11 bound by the terms of this Protective Order, and that a copy of the signed 12 acknowledgement form has been provided to all Counsel of Record at least three (3) 13 business days before the disclosure is made;

14 (4) Any experts or consultants who are not (i) current directors, officers, or 15 employees of any competitor of the producing party or (ii) experts or consultants for 16 any competitor of the producing party in a matter involving competitive decision 17 making. As used in this Protective Order, “competitive decision making” shall mean 18 any activity, association, or relationship with a competitor that involves providing 19 advice or participating in any decision of the competitor (e.g., pricing, product design, 20 operations etc.).

21 (i) Such experts and consultants shall not be permitted to provide 22 advice, analysis, or recommendations to a competitor of the producing party on 23 a matter involving competitive decision making while the above-entitled 24 litigation is pending including the completion of all appeals, absent consent of 25 the producing party, and until at least twelve (12) months after the conclusion of 26 this litigation including the completion of all appeals. Consent of the producing 27 party shall not be withheld absent compelling grounds.

28 (ii) Any such expert or consultant shall first be provided with a copy

1 of this Protective Order and shall execute an undertaking in the form annexed 2 hereto as Exhibit A. Consultants and experts are hereby specifically advised, 3 informed, and otherwise on actual notice that their written work product that 4 contains or discloses the substance of “CONFIDENTIAL” and 5 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials is 6 subject to all the provisions of this Protective Order. Counsel of Record 7 disclosing “CONFIDENTIAL” and “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ 8 EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials to consultants shall be responsible for 9 obtaining the executed undertaking in advance of such disclosure and also shall 10 retain the original executed copy of said undertaking;

11 (iii) Before receiving or having access to Discovery Materials
12 designated “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” such experts
13 or consultants shall execute a Declaration in the form attached as Exhibit B.
14 Counsel of Record disclosing “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES 15 ONLY” Discovery Materials to experts or consultants shall be responsible for 16 obtaining the executed undertaking, including from the staff of any such expert 17 or consultant, in advance of such disclosure and shall also retain the original 18 executed copy of said undertaking;

19 (iv) At least five (5) business days prior to making such disclosure—20 and after having secured the undertaking identified in sub-section (iii)— 21 Counsel of Record associated with the expert or consultant shall provide to 22 Counsel of Record for the party whose Protected Materials bearing the 23 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designation are being 24 disclosed a copy of the executed undertaking as well as the resume of the expert 25 or consultant being granted access to the Protected Materials bearing the 26 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” The purpose of such 27 notice is so that the party whose Protected Materials bearing the 28 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designation are being

1 disclosed may lodge any objection to forthcoming disclosure. Should a party 2 lodge such an objection, disclosure of the Protected Materials may not take 3 place until the parties have met, conferred, and otherwise resolved the 4 disclosure either through negotiation or intervention of the Court.

5 (5) Any current employee or consultant having authored or previously 6 received the designated Protected Material during the course of his or her employment 7 or consultancy subject to disclosure being limited to only the specific document(s) that 8 the person in question authored or received; and 9 (6) Any other person with the prior written consent of the party whose 10 Protected Material is being disclosed.

11 (e) During depositions, Counsel of Record may mark any exhibit as 12 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” but no such 13 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” document, or any 14 portion thereof, shall be attached to any publicly-available deposition or other transcript 15 without the written consent of the party that designated the document as “CONFIDENTIAL”
16 or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” Portions of deposition transcripts 17 designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall 18 be so marked and “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” 19 portions, including exhibits comprising “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – 20 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” documents, shall be separately bound under seal from the non-21 confidential portions of the transcript.

22 (1) For any “CONFIDENTIAL” Discovery Materials, Counsel of Record 23 may question any witness who is employed by the party who produced or authored the 24 “CONFIDENTIAL” Discovery Materials or that would reasonably have received the 25 “CONFIDENTIAL” Discovery Materials as to the “CONFIDENTIAL” discovery 26 materials.

27 (2) For any “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery
28 Materials, Counsel of Record may only question a witness who authored or actually

1 received the “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Material.
2 For any other witness, Counsel of Record must obtain either prior written consent of 3 the party having produced the “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” 4 Discovery Materials or consent at the deposition but prior to showing the 5 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Material to the 6 witness. In the latter instance, consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

7 (f) In the event that any party may seek to file with the Court any pleading, motion, 8 or other papers that quote or summarize Protected Materials, or file Protected Materials as 9 exhibits, that party must request to file under seal in accordance with this Court’s Civil Local 10 Rule 79-5 to ensure confidentiality of the Protected Materials. Copies of such documents 11 containing information subject to this Protective Order and that are served on counsel for the 12 parties shall be similarly identified and shall be maintained as “CONFIDENTIAL” and 13 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” as described herein. Nothing in this 14 section shall in any way limit or detract from the requirements relative to Software Code set 15 forth below.

16 (g) Any pleadings, motion papers or other papers not filed under seal shall have 17 deleted or otherwise redacted therefrom all “CONFIDENTIAL” and “CONFIDENTIAL – 18 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials and all portions of such pleadings or 19 papers that would disclose the substance of “CONFIDENTIAL” and “CONFIDENTIAL – 20 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials, provided, however, that any 21 “CONFIDENTIAL” and “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery
22 Materials served upon Counsel of Record need not have said materials deleted or otherwise 23 redacted therefrom.

24 10. Disclosure and review of Software Code shall be restricted in accordance with the 25 following provisions and paragraphs 11 and 12:

26 (a) Software Code that is produced by Psystar Corporation, if any, shall be made 27 available for inspection in electronic format at the Palo Alto office of its outside counsel, 28 Carr & Ferrell LLP, or at any other location mutually agreed upon by the parties. Software

1 Code that is produced by Apple Inc., if any, shall be made available for inspection in electronic 2 format at the San Francisco office of its outside counsel, Townsend and Townsend and Crew
3 LLP, or at any other location mutually agreed upon by the parties. Prior to the first inspection
4 of any requested piece of Software Code, the requesting party shall provide thirty (30) calendar 5 days notice of the Software Code that it wishes to inspect. The requesting party shall provide 6 three (3) business days notice prior to any additional inspections.

7 (b) A party producing Software Code that is designated “CONFIDENTIAL – 8 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall be permitted to give written notice to the receiving party 9 that the receiving party must conduct its inspection and review of such Software Code in 10 accordance with any or all of the following provisions:

11 (i) All Software Code shall be made available by the producing party to the 12 receiving party’s outside counsel and/or experts in a private room, on a secured 13 computer without access of any kind to the Internet or any other computer over a 14 network, as necessary and appropriate to prevent and protect against any unauthorized 15 copying, transmission, removal, or other transfer of any Software Code outside or away 16 from the computer on which the Software Code is provided for inspection (the 17 “Software Code Computer”). The producing party must produce Software Code in the 18 form in which it is kept in the ordinary course of the producing party’s business. In 19 particular, if the producing party has any copy of Software Code in computer-20 searchable format, the producing party will load such searchable Software Code on the 21 Software Code Computer. In addition, the producing party shall install tools that are 22 sufficient for viewing and searching the Software Code on the platform produced if 23 such tools exist and are presently used in the ordinary course of the producing party’s 24 business. The receiving party’s outside counsel and/or experts may request that 25 additional software tools for viewing and searching Software Code (commercial or 26 proprietary) be installed on the Software Code Computer for the receiving party to 27 perform its review of the Software Code. In such an instance, the receiving party must 28 provide the producing party with the CD or DVD containing such licensed software

1 tool(s) at least five (5) business days in advance of the date upon which the receiving 2 party wishes to have the additional software tools available for use on the Software
3 Code Computer. The receiving party's outside counsel and/or experts may create a 4 back-up copy of the Software Code on the Software Code Computer. The receiving 5 party may use the searching tools to annotate and number the lines of the back-up copy 6 of the Software Code. The back-up copy will remain on the Software Code Computer 7 and shall otherwise be subject to all of the provisions of this Protective Order 8 governing Software Code.

9 (ii) The receiving party's outside counsel and/or experts shall be entitled to 10 take notes relating to the Software Code but may not copy the Software Code into the 11 notes. Any attempt to do so shall constitute a material breach of the Protective Order.
12 No copies of all or any portion of the Software Code may leave the room in which the 13 Software Code is inspected except as otherwise provided herein. Further, no other 14 written or electronic record of the Software Code is permitted except as otherwise 15 provided herein. The producing party shall make available a laser printer with 16 commercially reasonable printing speeds for on-site printing during inspection of the 17 Software Code. The receiving party may print portions of the Software Code only 18 when reasonably necessary to facilitate the receiving party's preparation of the case, 19 including when reasonably necessary to prepare any filing with the Court or to serve 20 any pleadings or other papers on any other party; to prepare internal work product 21 materials; or to prepare other necessary case materials such as testifying expert reports, 22 consulting expert written analyses, and related drafts and correspondences. The 23 receiving party shall print only such portions as are reasonably necessary for the 24 purposes for which any part of the Software Code is printed at the time. The printed 25 pages shall constitute part of the Software Code produced by the producing party in this 26 action. Upon printing any such portions of Software Code, the printed pages shall be 27 collected by the producing party. The producing party shall Bates number and label 28 "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" any pages printed by the

1 receiving party. The producing party shall then provide one copy set of such pages to 2 the receiving party within five (5) business days. Except as otherwise provided herein, 3 the producing party may not videotape or otherwise monitor review of code by the 4 requesting party.

5 (iii) A list of names of persons who will view the Software Code will be 6 provided to the producing party in conjunction with any written (including email) 7 notice requesting inspection. All persons viewing Software Code shall, each day they 8 view Software Code, (a) each sign a log including the names of persons who enter the 9 locked room to view the Software Code; (b) when each person entered the room; and 10 (c) when each person departed the room. A copy of the log must be available for 11 inspection by the producing party at the producing party's request.

12 (iv) Unless otherwise agreed in advance by the parties in writing, following 13 each day on which inspection is done under this Protective Order, the receiving party's 14 outside counsel and/or experts shall remove all notes, documents, laptops, and all other 15 materials from the room that may contain work product and/or attorney-client 16 privileged information except for the backup copy of the Software Code, which shall 17 remain on the Software Code Computer. The backup copy of the Software Code shall 18 be considered the receiving party's attorney work product. The producing party shall 19 not be responsible for any other items left in the room following each inspection 20 session.

21 (v) Other than as provided in subsections (b)(i) through (b)(iii) above, the 22 receiving party will not copy, remove, or otherwise transfer any Software Code from 23 the Software Code Computer including, without limitation, copying, removing, or 24 transferring the Software Code onto any other computers or peripheral equipment. The 25 receiving party will not transmit any Software Code in any way from the producing 26 party's facilities or the offices of its outside counsel.

27 (vi) The receiving party's Counsel of Record may make no more than ten 28 (10) copies of any portions of the Software Code received from a producing party

1 pursuant to this Paragraph, not including copies attached to Court filings or used at 2 depositions. The receiving party's Counsel of Record shall maintain a log of all paper 3 copies of the Software Code received from a producing party that are delivered by the 4 receiving party to any qualified person under this Protective Order. The log shall 5 include the names of the reviewers and/or recipients of paper copies and locations 6 where the paper copies are stored. A copy of the log must be made available by the 7 receiving party for inspection by the producing party at the producing party's request.

8 (vii) The receiving party's Counsel of Record and any person receiving a copy 9 of any Software Code shall maintain and store any paper copies of the Software Code 10 at their offices in a manner that prevents duplication of or unauthorized access to the 11 Software Code, including, without limitation, storing the Software Code in a locked 12 room or cabinet at all times when it is not in use.

13 (viii) All paper copies of Software Code shall be securely destroyed in a timely 14 manner if they are no longer in use (e.g., at the conclusion of a deposition). Copies of 15 Software Code that are marked as deposition exhibits shall not be provided to the Court 16 Reporter or attached to deposition transcripts; rather, the deposition record will identify 17 the exhibit by its production numbers.

18 (ix) Except as provided in this sub-paragraph, absent express written 19 permission from the producing party, the receiving party may not create electronic 20 images, or any other images, or make electronic copies, of the Software Code from any 21 paper copy of Software Code for use in any manner (including by way of example 22 only, the receiving party may not scan the Software Code to a PDF or photograph the 23 code). Images or copies of Software Code shall not be included in correspondence 24 between the parties (references to production numbers shall be used instead), and shall 25 be omitted from pleadings and other papers whenever possible. If a party reasonably 26 believes that it needs to submit a portion of Software Code as part of a filing with the 27 Court, the Software Code shall be filed under seal pursuant to the Civil Local Rule 79-28 5 of the Northern District of California. In no case, however, may a Party submit more

1 Software Code as part of a filing with the Court than is necessary to argue the precise 2 point that the Software Code supports, and any Software Code that is included on the 3 pages submitted but which is not required to argue the precise point that the Software 4 Code supports shall be redacted. The Court filing or other materials containing any 5 portion of Software Code (paper or electronic) shall at all times be limited solely to 6 individuals who are expressly authorized to view Software Code under the provisions 7 of this Order. The receiving party shall maintain a log of all such electronic copies of 8 any portion of Software Code in its possession or in the possession of its retained 9 consultants, including the names of the reviewers and/or recipients of any such 10 electronic copies, and the locations where the electronic copies are stored. A copy of 11 the log must be made available for inspection by the producing party at the producing 12 party's request. Additionally, any such electronic copies must be labeled 13 "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" as provided for in this Protective 14 Order.

15 11. Should Counsel of Record for any party wish to disclose any "CONFIDENTIAL" or 16 "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Discovery Materials produced by another party
17 to a person not authorized by this Protective Order to review such Protected Materials, said counsel 18 shall first provide counsel for the producing party with a short statement of the reason for the proposed 19 disclosure and the name, address, and business or professional affiliation and title (e.g., officer, 20 director, etc.) of such person, by written notice, delivered by hand, e-mail or by fax, at least ten (10) 21 business days prior to the proposed disclosure. If counsel for the producing party objects to the 22 disclosure within said ten-day period, then the party requesting consent shall not proceed with the 23 proposed disclosures, the parties shall engage in good faith efforts to resolve the matter informally 24 and, if those efforts should fail, the party requesting consent may file with this Court an application or 25 motion seeking authorization to make the proposed disclosure pursuant to paragraph 12 below.

26 12. If any dispute arises concerning whether information designated as 27 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" should in fact be 28 considered Protected Material with that specific designation for purposes of this Protective Order, then

1 the parties shall try first to resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis. If the dispute 2 cannot be so resolved, the party who has objected to the designation of the information as 3 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall give written notice
4 that such informal attempts have failed. After the party's receipt of such notice, the objecting party
5 may file a motion asking the Court to resolve the issue. On such motion, the party asserting 6 confidentiality shall have the burden of proving that the “CONFIDENTIAL”, “CONFIDENTIAL – 7 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information: (a) constitutes a trade secret or other confidential 8 research, development, or commercial information within the meaning of Rule 26(c)(7) of the Federal 9 Rules of Civil Procedure or (b) is otherwise entitled to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal 10 Rules of Civil Procedure. Prior to the determination of such motion, the disputed information shall be 11 treated by the parties at the level designated by the producing party. If such motion is granted and five 12 business days have passed after entry of an order granting the motion, then the party may proceed with 13 the proposed disclosure.

14 13. The disclosure of any Protected Materials pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order 15 is not intended to be and shall not be construed as a waiver of any right or a relinquishment of any 16 confidentiality claim as to said Discovery Materials or as a waiver of any claim that the information 17 disclosed is a trade secret or is proprietary.

18 14. Upon final resolution of this litigation, including any appellate proceedings or 19 expiration of the time allowed therefore:

20 (a) Unless otherwise agreed, counsel for each party shall return all Discovery
21 Materials marked “CONFIDENTIAL” and “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” 22 received hereunder, including all copies thereof, to counsel for the party or third party that produced 23 said materials. Counsel for each party shall also destroy all extracts or summaries of 24 “CONFIDENTIAL” and “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Discovery Materials or 25 documents containing such material. Certification of such destruction, under penalty of perjury, is to 26 be made in writing to counsel for the party who produced such “CONFIDENTIAL” and 27 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”; and 28 (b) The Clerk of the Court shall maintain under seal any documents that have been

1 sealed by the Court subject to Civil Local Rule 79-5(f) and any further order of the Court.

2 15. Nothing contained in this Protective Order shall preclude any party or third party from 3 seeking or obtaining, upon an appropriate showing, additional protection with respect to any 4 documents, information, or other Discovery Materials or trade secrets. Nothing contained herein 5 relieves any party of its obligation to respond to discovery.

6 16. The Court may modify this Protective Order at any time or consider any dispute which 7 may arise hereunder upon motion of any of the parties.

8 17. This Protective Order shall remain in effect for the duration of the action unless 9 terminated by stipulation or pursuant to Court order. Insofar as they restrict the disclosure, treatment, 10 or use of information subject to this Protective Order, the provisions of this Protective Order shall 11 continue to be binding after the termination of this action, unless the Court orders otherwise.

12 18. In the event that any provision of the Protective Order is found to be in conflict with 13 any other provision of the Protective Order, the more restrictive provision shall govern until the parties 14 otherwise resolve the conflict. Any such resolution shall be reduced to writing and considered an 15 integrated part of this Protective Order, applicable to all future instances involving a similar conflict of 16 governing provisions.

EXHIBIT B

DECLARATION OF UNDERTAKING AND COMPLIANCE

I, _____, declare:

1. My address is _____

2. My present employer is _____

3. My present occupation and job title are _____

4. I have received a copy of the Protective Order Regarding Confidential Information entered into on behalf of the parties to Apple Inc. v. Psystar Corp., CV 08-03251 WHA, filed in the United States District Court, Northern District of California. I have carefully read and understand the provisions of it and agree that I will comply with all provisions of it.

5. I am not involved in “competitive decisionmaking” for any party in the above-entitled action, as that term is defined in the Protective Order. I agree that if I intend at any time to take on responsibility for competitive decisionmaking, I will seek leave of Court to be released from this Protective Order.

6. I submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for purposes of enforcement of the Protective Order, and fully understand that violation of the Protective Order is punishable by contempt of Court.

7. I will hold in confidence, and will not disclose to anyone not qualified under the Protective Order, any Discovery Materials disclosed to me that are designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or any words, summaries or abstracts thereof.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
