pokebaliguy watch the related video "paper kamz kids rocking out" is sooo funny cuz the kids think they could last a second with a real guitar. if you ask me this is good if you want to learn chords at a young age and then you move on to a real guitar. and the drum set for this is ugly and pointeless.

@rippedtothemax67 I never got why people always crowd to metal when it comes to looking for talent in music (i was kind of am but not really am a meanhead)...Listen to some jazz fusion, or jam bands like Phish or the Allman Brothers, part of keeping music alive and talented is opening your mind.

WowWee have released their range of Paper Jamz guitars – as well as drums and guitar amplifiers – that promise musical inspiration at the flick of a wrist. The main draw are the guitars, retailing at £24.99, which make authentic guitar noise when strummed. There's a whole host of functions here, letting you freestyle and also play along with three pre-loaded rock anthems, including the likes of Deep Purple's 'Smoke on the Water'.

These things are tiny – as little as 3mm in bulk – but are shaped just like the real thing, letting you play on a Gibson Flying V or a Fender Strat without having to shell out hundreds of pounds.

But not only can you axe-grind, you can also tub thump. Also priced at £24.99, the Paper Jamz drum-kit is a ten-

Awesome toy!

FANS OF GUITAR HERO, GET THIS!!!!

It's called Paper Jamz cos it's 'paper thin' but it's really a thin plastic guitar toy. I got the rock 2 (red gibson style). It's fun to mess around with! I use it to play songs just for kicks until I get around to buying strings for my real guitar (and eventually learn how to play!)

The guitars come with three songs to learn. My guitar came with What I Like About You by the Romantics, Two Princes by the Spin Doctors, and it's The End of the World As We Know It by REM. There are different modes on the guitar: play 1, play 2, and play 3; freestyle; rhythm 1, rhythm 2, and rhythm 3. The play modes play the backing tracks and vocals of the songs that you 'strum' along to. Rhythm mode controls the rhythm of the guitar accompanying the hits. Freestyle mode is AWESOME, I get to play notes by pressing a fret or major/minor chords by holding down two or more frets (there's a few 7th chords too) and create my own songs! The chords are in open E. There's a Karaoke mode to learn how to play the included songs better, how cool!

You can adjust the volume by pressing and holding down the volume button, then slide your fingers up the neck of the guitar. To turn it down, you press and hold volume, then slide your fingers down.

There's a jack for audio or line out. Having a line out jack is awesome cos then you can play along to your own songs from your mp3 player or whatever audio source! It comes with a manual which is very thorough in English, Spanish, and French, and has a mini card of the chords you can play on your guitar.

This takes 3 AAA (triple-A) batteries.

It's not a real guitar by any means, but it's fun to pretend! Now I need my paper jamz amp (yes there is one) and I can really ROCK OUT!!! I use freestyle mode often to
