1	Torture ("CAT"). We have jurisdiction under 8 U.S.C. § 1252. We review for
2	substantial evidence the agency's factual findings, Wakkary v. Holder, 558 F.3d
3	1049, 1056 (9th Cir. 2009), and we deny the petition for review.
4	The record does not compel the conclusion that Moncada Lopez established
5	changed circumstances to excuse his untimely asylum application. See 8 C.F.R. §
6	1208.4(a); see also Sangha v. INS, 103 F.3d 1482, 1487 (9th Cir. 1997) (to reverse
7	the agency's decision, petitioner must show that the evidence compels this
8	conclusion).
9	Moncada Lopez argued to the agency that he established past persecution
10	and a fear of future persecution from gang members on account of his political
11	opinion and membership in a particular social group consisting of his family.
12	Substantial evidence supports the BIA's finding that Moncada Lopez failed to
13	establish past persecution or that it is more likely than not he would be persecuted
14	on account of a protected ground. See Zetino v. Holder, 622 F.3d 1007, 1016 (9th
15	Cir. 2010) ("An alien's desire to be free from harassment by criminals motivated
16	by theft or random violence by gang members bears no nexus to a protected
17	ground."). Thus, Moncada Lopez's withholding of removal claim fails.
18	Finally, substantial evidence supports the agency's denial of CAT relief
19	because Moncada Lopez failed to establish it is more likely than not that he would
