MEMORANDUM*

On Petition for Review of an Order of the Board of Immigration Appeals

Argued and Submitted October 22, 2015 San Francisco, California

Before: PAEZ, MURGUIA, and HURWITZ, Circuit Judges.

Iyabo Williams petitions for review of the Board of Immigration Appeals'
("BIA") order denying her motion to reopen removal proceedings. Because the BIA acted contrary to law, we hold that it abused its discretion and grant
Williams's petition for review.

^{*} This disposition is not appropriate for publication and is not precedent except as provided by 9th Cir. R. 36-3.

- 1. The BIA's order, although unclear, appears to reject Williams's claim to changed circumstances because threats she received in 2010 were not qualitatively different than all previous threats, including threats that she continued to receive until 1997 or 1998. The BIA's disposition therefore contravenes the applicable regulation, which requires a determination of whether Williams's evidence is qualitatively different from evidence available at the time of her 1993 merits hearing. 8 C.F.R. § 1003.2(c)(3)(ii); see also Malty v. Ashcroft, 381 F.3d 942, 946 (9th Cir. 2004).
- 2. The BIA's disposition is also inconsistent with Chandra v. Holder, 751 F.3d 1034 (9th Cir. 2014), because it discounted threats Williams received in the United States based on the erroneous premise that "[t]hreats in the United States are not changed conditions in Nigeria[.]" Although changed personal circumstances alone are insufficient to support a motion to reopen, they may bear on the materiality of changed circumstances in Nigeria. See id. at 1036-39.

PETITION GRANTED.

¹The government acknowledged that the BIA's "decision on this issue might have been more artfully drafted."
