MEMORANDUM*

On Petition for Review of an Order of the Immigration Judge

Submitted February 4, 2020

Before: FERNANDEZ, SILVERMAN, and TALLMAN, Circuit Judges.

Geovanni Rubio-Blanco, a native and citizen of El Salvador, petitions pro se for review of an immigration judge's ("IJ") determination under 8 C.F.R.

§ 1208.31(a) that he did not have a reasonable fear of persecution or torture in El

* This disposition is not appropriate for publication and is not precedent except as provided by Ninth Circuit Rule 36-3.

 The panel unanimously concludes this case is suitable for decision without oral argument. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a)(2).

Salvador and thus is not entitled to relief from his reinstated removal order. We have jurisdiction under 8 U.S.C. § 1252. We review for substantial evidence the IJ's factual findings. Andrade-Garcia v. Lynch, 828 F.3d 829, 833 (9th Cir. 2016). We deny the petition for review.

We reject Rubio-Blanco's contention that he is eligible for asylum. See 8 C.F.R. § 1208.31(g)(2)(i).

Substantial evidence supports the IJ's conclusion that Rubio-Blanco failed to demonstrate a reasonable possibility of future persecution in El Salvador on account of a protected ground. See Zetino v. Holder, 622 F.3d 1007, 1016 (9th Cir. 2010) (petitioner's "desire to be free from harassment by criminals motivated by theft or random violence by gang members bears no nexus to a protected ground").

Substantial evidence also supports the IJ's conclusion that Rubio-Blanco failed to demonstrate a reasonable possibility of torture by or with the consent or acquiescence of the government if returned to El Salvador. See Andrade-Garcia, 828 F.3d at 836-37.

We reject as unsupported Rubio-Blanco's vague claim that the IJ violated his right to due process.

PETITION FOR REVIEW DENIED.
