2008 expedited removal order. Our jurisdiction is governed by 8 U.S.C. § 1252. Our review of DHS' reinstatement order is "limited to confirming the agency's compliance with the reinstatement regulations." Garcia de Rincon v. Dep't of Homeland Sec., 539 F.3d 1133, 1137 (9th Cir. 2008). We deny in part and dismiss in part the petition for review.

DHS did not err in issuing Mejia-Aldarco's reinstatement order, where he concedes, and the record shows, that he is an alien, he was subject to a prior order of removal, and he illegally reentered the United States subsequent to that order. See id. at 1137 (court's jurisdiction over a reinstatement order is limited to reviewing "three discrete inquiries an immigration officer must make in order to reinstate a removal order: (1) whether the petitioner is an alien; (2) whether the petitioner was subject to a prior removal order, and (3) whether the petitioner reentered illegally" (citation omitted)).

We lack jurisdiction to review Mejia-Aldarco's collateral challenge to his underlying expedited removal order. See id. at 1138 ("whatever relief might be gained by the operation of [8 U.S.C.] § 1252(a)(2)(D) and the 'gross miscarriage' standard, it is unavailable to [petitioner] because [his] underlying removal order is an expedited removal order that is subject to additional jurisdictional bars" (emphasis in original)).

PETITION FOR REVIEW DENIED in part; DISMISSED in part.
