appeal from an immigration judge's ("IJ") decision denying their motion to reopen removal proceedings conducted in absentia. We have jurisdiction under 8 U.S.C. § 1252. We review for abuse of discretion the denial of a motion to reopen. Mohammed v. Gonzales, 400 F.3d 785, 791 (9th Cir. 2005). We deny the petition for review.

The agency did not abuse its discretion in denying the motion to reopen to rescind petitioners' removal orders, where petitioners did not dispute that the hearing notice was correctly addressed and mailed twenty-three days before the hearing, and the evidence petitioners submitted was not sufficient to overcome the presumption of effective service. See 8 U.S.C. §§ 1229a(b)(5)(C), 1229(c); see also Sembiring v. Gonzales, 499 F.3d 981, 988 (9th Cir. 2007) (describing evidence sufficient to overcome the presumption of effective mail service).

The temporary stay of removal remains in place until the issuance of the mandate.

PETITION FOR REVIEW DENIED.
