ORDER

AllPure Technologies, Inc. (“AllPure”) moves to dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction. EMD Millipore

2 EMD MILLIPORE CORPORATION v. ALLPURE TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

Corporation et al. (“Millipore”) oppose and move to deactivate the appeal.

In 2014-1018, Millipore appealed a district court order that granted AllPure’s motion for summary judgment of non-infringement. Still unresolved were issues of invalidity and non-enforceability of the patent. Subsequent to this appeal, the district court entered final judgment and dismissed without prejudice Allpure’s claims of patent invalidity and unenforceability. Millipore timely appealed that final judgment, docketed as appeal no. 2014-1140.

While we have jurisdiction over appeal no. 2014-1140, the notice of appeal in the instant case was premature.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

- (1) 2014-1018 is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.
- (2) The motion to deactivate the appeal is denied.
- (3) Each side shall bear its own costs.
