ORDER

Before the court is the motion of Defendant United States, on behalf of the Department of Commerce (“Commerce” or the “Department”), for reconsideration, ECF No. 120. Defendant’s motion follows the court’s decision in Fusong Jinlong Wooden Grp. Co. v. United States, 46 CIT ___, 617 F. Supp. 3d 1221 (2022) (“Fusong I”), which held that Commerce’s use of Senmao’s highest transaction-specific dumping margin as Sino-Maple’s adverse facts available rate was not authorized by the statute. The court remanded the final results to Commerce with instructions to “reconsider the method used to select Sino-Maple’s [adverse facts available] rate to comply with the statute, 19 U.S.C. § 1677e(d).” Id., 46 CIT at ___, 617 F. Supp. 3d at 1252. Defendant, by its motion, asks the court to find that Commerce’s method for selecting an adverse facts available rate was lawful.

Upon consideration of Defendant’s motion, and other papers and proceedings had herein, and upon due deliberation, it is hereby ORDERED that Defendant’s motion is granted, and the court finds that Commerce’s method for selecting an adverse facts available rate for Sino-Maple was lawful; it is further

ORDERED that Fusong I is hereby partially vacated, only to the extent the court held that Commerce was prohibited from using Senmao’s highest transaction-specific dumping margin as Sino-Maple’s adverse facts available rate; and it is further ORDERED that, because the court remanded Commerce’s final results solely on this point, the Department is relieved of the obligation to conduct a remand redetermination and file its results.

The court will issue a subsequent opinion deciding the issues upon which it previously reserved decision. See id., 46 CIT at ___, 617 F. Supp. 3d at 1227 n.8.
