UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re: City of Detroit, Michigan, Debtor.	Chapter 9 Case No. 13-53846 Hon. Steven W. Rhodes
Order Denying (1) Syncora's Motion to Admit Certain Deposition Testimony [Dkt. #954]; (2) Syncora's Supplemental Motion to Admit Certain Deposition Testimony [Dkt. #2035]; and (3) Syncora's Motion for an Expedited Hearing Regarding Pleading #2035 [Dkt. #2036]
Syncora has filed the three motions iden	tified in the caption above. The Court concludes that no hearing is necessary to resolve the mor	tions. Accordingly, the motion for an expedited hearing [Dkt. #2036] is denied. Further, the hearing	aring presently set for Syncora's Motion to Admit Certain Deposition Testimony [Dkt. #954] is ca	ncelled.
The Court further concludes that the tw	vo motions to admit deposition testimony should be denied without prejudice. The more effic	eient procedure for the admission of deposition testimony into evidence would be to identify	y as proposed exhibits the transcripts of such testimony, or portions thereof. Other parties	will then have an opportunity to object to such evidence, and also to propose as exhibits counte	er-designations of deposition testimony.
It is so ordered.
