CITY OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN’S OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO THE REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION BY CREDITOR, RETIRED DETROIT
POLICE MEMBERS ASSOCIATION’S AMENDED SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO DEBTOR, FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND FIRST REQUEST TO ADMIT

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rules 26 and 36, as made applicable to this proceeding by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7026, 7036, 9014, and 9016, the City of Detroit, Michigan (the “City”) hereby submits the following objections and responses to the Requests For Admission in Creditor's Retired Detroit Police Members Association's First Set of Interrogatories to Debtor, First Request for Production of Documents and First Request to Admit (the “Requests for Admission”).

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

The City incorporates the following general objections into each of its specific responses to these Requests for Admission. The assertion of the same, similar, or additional objections, or a partial response to any individual request, does not waive any of the City's general objections.

1. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent they seek to impose a burden or obligation beyond those required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the local rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, or any other applicable procedural rules.

2. The City's response to each and every one of these Requests for Admission is subject to any applicable competence, relevance, materiality, propriety, and admissibility objections, and to any and all other objections on any grounds that would require the exclusion of any statements contained herein if any of these Requests for Admission were asked of, or statements contained herein were made by, a witness present and testifying in court. The City explicitly reserves all such objections and may interpose them at trial.

3. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent that they seek information subject to the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, the common interest doctrine and/or any other applicable privilege or immunity, or to a protective order and/or stipulation of confidentiality between the City and any third party. Further, any responses to these Requests for Admission shall not be deemed a waiver or impairment of the City's rights or any claim of privilege or immunity.

4. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent they seek information that is confidential or proprietary business information, trade secrets, other proprietary information, intellectual property, and/or commercially sensitive information of a third party to whom the City owes a legal obligation of non-disclosure. Such information will only be provided pursuant to a court-entered protective order and with the consent of the operative third parties.

5. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent they request information protected from discovery by any right to privacy or any other applicable privilege, including the right to privacy of third parties, or by the City's obligations under applicable law to protect such confidential information.

6. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, as unduly burdensome and oppressive to the extent they purport to require the City to search facilities and inquire of its officers, employees, representatives, attorneys, advisors and/or agents other than those facilities and officers, employees, representatives, attorneys, advisors and/or agents reasonably expected to have responsive information. Accordingly, the City's responses to these Requests for Admission are based upon (1) a reasonable search, given the time permitted to respond to these Requests for Admission, of facilities and files reasonably expected to possess responsive information and (2) inquiries of the City's officers, employees, representatives, attorneys, advisors and/or agents who could reasonably be expected to possess responsive information.

7. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent they seek discovery of information that is not reasonably accessible on the grounds of undue burden and cost. By stating that it will produce or make available information responsive to a particular interrogatory, the City represents that it will produce responsive, non-privileged information subject to reasonable limitations on the scope of the search, review, and production of such information due to the cost and burden of production.

8. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent they seek disclosure of information not within the City's possession, custody, or control.

9. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, as overbroad, unduly burdensome, cumulative, and duplicative to the extent they seek the production of "all" and "any" information of a specified type or nature, when a limited amount of information would suffice to provide a response. The City also objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, as overbroad, vague, and ambiguous, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence to the extent they seek information regarding "any" or "all" persons, entities, objects, or events.

10. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent they seek information that is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Moreover, the City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, as overbroad, unduly burdensome, not relevant and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence to the extent they seek information relating to an individual topic or subject area for a time period outside the scope of the subject matter at issue in this proceeding.

11. The City objects to each and every one of the Objector's definitions, instructions, and Requests for Admission to the extent that they are or purport to be so comprehensive as to be impossible or unduly burdensome and expensive to answer.

12. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent that any term, phrase or word used therein is vague and ambiguous, subject to varying interpretation, requires subjective knowledge by any other party other than the City, or involves issues of law subject to resolution by the court. The City will respond to each and every Interrogatory to the extent possible, based on the most objectively reasonable interpretation of each such term, phrase or word in the Interrogatory.

13. The City objects to these Requests for Admission to the extent that they do not specify a responsive time period as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Accordingly, the City's responses to these Requests for Admission are limited to the time period of December 1, 2011 through July 18, 2013.

14. The City objects to the definition of “Debtor” insofar as it purports to include “the City of Detroit, its employees, agents, representatives, and attorneys” because such an expansive definition is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and potentially calls for information that is not within the possession, custody, or control of the City.

15. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission to the extent they are vague, ambiguous, or insufficiently defined. Specifically, the City objects to the definition of the terms “retiree” and “employee” as vague and ambiguous, and rendering any Request for Admission containing those term overly broad.

16. The City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent that the information sought is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, or is obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive. Specifically, the City objects to each and every one of these Requests for Admission, and the instructions and definitions therein, to the extent the information sought is equally available to the Objector, including information that is publicly available and/or already in the Objector’s possession, as providing such information would be unduly burdensome.

17. The City's Objections are made based on its understanding and interpretation of each Request for Admission. The City reserves the right to supplement its Objections should Objector subsequently put forth an interpretation of any Request for Admission differing from the City's interpretation of the same language. The City reserves the right to object on any ground at any time to other discovery requests Objections may propound involving or relating to the same subject matter of these Requests for Admission.

18. The City's responses to these Requests for Admission reflect the current state of its knowledge and understanding regarding matters about which the inquiry has been made. The City reserves its rights to supplement or modify its responses with any relevant information as it may hereafter discover and will do so to the extent required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the local rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, or any other applicable procedural rules.

19. By responding to these Requests for Admission, the City is not implicitly or explicitly agreeing with or otherwise adopting the Objector's characterizations or definitions contained therein, or admitting or conceding that the information sought is likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Except for any facts explicitly admitted in the City's objections or responses, no admission of any nature whatsoever is to be implied by or inferred from any statement anywhere in this document.

20. Each of these General Objections is incorporated by reference into each of the objections set forth below and each response set forth below is made without waiving any of these General Objections.

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION AND RESPONSES

1. Admit the City intended to impair accrued financial benefits of the City's pension and retirement plans as of March 14, 2013.

Response: The City objects to the use of the term "intent" with respect to a municipality as opposed to individuals or officials as vague and ambiguous, and calls for speculation or legal conclusions. Subject to and without waiving these objections, the City denies this Request and states that it had no such intent on March 14, 2013.

2. Admit the City intended to impair accrued financial benefits of the City's pension and retirement plans as of March 25, 2013.

Response: The City objects to the use of the term "intent" with respect to a municipality as opposed to individuals or officials as vague and ambiguous, and calls for speculation or legal conclusions. Subject to and without waiving these objections, the City denies this Request and states that it had no such intent on March 25, 2013.

3. Admit that Kevyn Orr discussed with Governor Snyder or representatives of Governor Snyder's office the City's intent to impair accrued financial benefits of the City's pension and retirement plans prior to March 14, 2013.

Response: The City objects to the use of the term "intent" with respect to a municipality as opposed to individuals or officials as vague and ambiguous, and calls for speculation or legal conclusions. Subject to and without waiving these objections, the City denies this Request and states that it had no such intent on March 14, 2013.

4. Admit that the City is due approximately $200 million in revenue sharing funds from the State of Michigan.

Response: The City objects to this Request because it calls for a legal conclusion as to a matter on which the City has not yet taken a formal position.
