ORDER AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

On May 2, 2006, Vincent Rivera, an inmate incarcerated in the Florida State Prison located in Raiford, Florida, filed an application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). Pursuant to the directives of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), a prisoner is not allowed to bring a civil action or proceed on appeal in forma pauperis if he "has, on 3 or more occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury."¹

¹In Rivera v. Allin, 144 F.3d 719, 731 (11th Cir. 1998), the Court determined that the "three strikes" provision of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), which requires frequent filer prisoner indigents to prepay the entire filing fee before federal courts may consider their cases and appeals, "does not violate the First Amendment right to access the courts; the separation of judicial and legislative powers; the Fifth Amendment right to due process of law; or the Fourteenth Amendment right to equal protection, as incorporated through the Fifth Amendment."

DISCUSSION

Court records establish that Plaintiff, while incarcerated, has on more than three occasions had 42 U.S.C. § 1983 cases dismissed under 28 U.S.C. § 1915 as frivolous, malicious, for failure to state a claim and/or for asserting claims against defendants who were immune from suit. The cases on which the court relies in finding a violation of § 1915(g) include, but are not limited to: (1) Rivera v. Tornin, et al., Civil Action No. 2:93-CV-170-JES (M.D. Fla. 1993); (2) Rivera . Arocho, Civil Action No. 3:96-CV-275-HES (M.D. Fla. 1996); (3) Rivera v. Parker, et al., 3:96-CV-325-WTH (M.D. Fla. 1996); (4) Rivera v. Almojera, et al., Civil Action No. 3:97-CV-569-WTH (M.D. Fla. 1997). Although the preceding list is not exhaustive of the cases summarily dismissed by the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida or other federal courts of the United States, it is representative of those cases filed by Plaintiff which were dismissed in accordance with the directives of 28 U.S.C. § 1915.²

In the instant complaint, Plaintiff's claims before this court do not allege nor in any way indicate that he "is under imminent danger of serious physical injury." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).

Based on the foregoing, the court concludes that Plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is due to be denied and this case dismissed without prejudice for Plaintiff's failure to pay the requisite filing fee ($350.00) upon the initiation of this cause of action. Dupree v. Palmer, 284 F.3d 1234, 1236 (11th Cir. 2002)) (“[T]he proper procedure is for the district court to dismiss the complaint without prejudice when it denies the prisoner leave to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to the provisions of § 1915(g)” because the prisoner “must pay the filing fee at the time he initiates the suit.”) (emphasis in original).

As the court in Rivera v. Bush, et al., Civil Action No. 3:05-CV-444-J-32HTS (M.D. Fla. 2005) noted, Rivera has a long history of frivolous and abusive filings and his ability to file pleadings with that court have now been limited.

CONCLUSION

In light of the foregoing, it is ORDERED that the motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis filed by Plaintiff on May 2, 2006 (Doc. No. 2) is DENIED.

It is the RECOMMENDATION of the Magistrate Judge that this case be DISMISSED without prejudice for Plaintiff’s failure to pay the full filing fee upon the initiation of this case.
