FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALABAMA

CASE NO. 2:07-CV-173-ID

[WO]

STATE OF ALABAMA DEPT. OF )

CORRECTIONS, et al., )

Defendants. )

RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

In this 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action, Tony Terrell Woods [“Woods”], a state inmate, challenges the allegedly unequal application of disciplinary rules at the Frank Lee Youth Center.

Upon review of the complaint, the court concludes that dismissal of the plaintiff’s claims against the Alabama Department of Corrections and Richard Allen prior to service of process is appropriate under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).<sup>1</sup>

DISCUSSION

The plaintiff names the Alabama Department of Corrections as a defendant in this cause of action. The law is well-settled that state agencies are immune from suit, Papasan

---

<sup>1</sup> A prisoner who is allowed to proceed in forma pauperis in this court will have his complaint screened in accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). This screening procedure requires the court to dismiss a prisoner’s civil action prior to service of process if it determines that the complaint is frivolous, malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary damages from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i)-(iii).

v. Allain, 478 U.S. 265 (1986), and are not persons within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 1983. See Will v. Michigan Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 65, 109 S.Ct. 2304, 2309 (1989). Thus, the plaintiff's claims against the Alabama Department of Corrections are frivolous as they are "based on an indisputably meritless legal theory." Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 327 (1989).<sup>2</sup> Such claims are therefore subject to dismissal pursuant to the directives of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, it is the RECOMMENDATION of the Magistrate Judge that:

1. The plaintiff's claims against the Alabama Department of Corrections be dismissed prior to service of process in accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).
2. The Alabama Department of Corrections be dismissed from this cause of action.
3. This case, with respect to the claims lodged against the remaining defendants, be referred back to the undersigned for appropriate proceedings.

It is further

ORDERED that on or before March 13, 2007 the parties may file objections to the Recommendation. Any objections filed must specifically identify the findings in the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation to which the party is objecting. that this Recommendation is not a final order of the court and, therefore, it is not appealable.

Failure to file written objections to the proposed findings and advisements in the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation shall bar the party from a de novo determination by the District Court of issues covered in the Recommendation and shall bar the party from attacking on appeal factual findings in the Recommendation accepted or adopted by the District Court except upon grounds of plain error or manifest injustice. *Nettles v.
