OPINION

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a pro se prisoner filed a lawsuit alleging violations of due process in the denial of parole; the complaint included allegations about the plaintiff in this case. As the pro se prisoner could not represent other inmates, the United States Magistrate Judge ordered that a new case be opened in plaintiff's name, leading to this case. This lawsuit is now before the court on the recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge that plaintiff's case be dismissed for his failure to respond to a court order to pay a filing fee or a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. There are no objections to the recommendation. After an independent and de novo review of the record, the court concludes that the magistrate judge's recommendation should be adopted.

An appropriate judgment will be entered.

DONE, this the 26th day of October, 2022.
