vs.	)	CIVIL ACTION NO. 3:12cv028-WHA
	)
LUTHER R. STRANGE, Attorney General	)	(WO)
of Alabama, et al.,	)

Defendants.	)

ORDER

This case is before the court on the Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge (Doc. #5), the Plaintiff's Written Objection (Doc. #6), and the Plaintiff's Amendment to Motion (Doc. #7). The court has conducted an independent evaluation and de novo review of the Recommendation, the Objections, and the file.

Plaintiff objects to the Recommendation that his complaint be dismissed under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). Plaintiff filed this § 1983 action seeking damages and challenging his imprisonment due to charges pending against him based on application of the Alabama Community Notification Act (ACNA). Plaintiff has a prior conviction for second degree rape.

Plaintiff's objection claims that the Magistrate Judge failed to review his 1987 guilty plea colloquy before entering a recommendation. Review of that plea is not necessary to the court's disposition of this matter based on the allegations presented in the complaint. While Plaintiff makes various objections with regard to his contention that application of the ACNA to him is unconstitutional, as explained in the Recommendation the court must abstain from considering the merits of Plaintiff's challenges to the validity of his current imprisonment based on the charges against him stemming from ACNA violations as well as any general claim made regarding the constitutionality of Plaintiff's current confinement. Younger v. Harris, 401 U.S. 37 (1971); Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477 (1944). The Recommendation also noted that Heck and its progeny bar this court from reviewing any challenges which might invalidate Plaintiff's second degree rape conviction.

Plaintiff submitted an amended objection. His objection regarding the absence of an initial appearance was a claim raised in the complaint and addressed in the Recommendation. His additional objections concerning denial of bond as well as denial of access to the law library for 45 days are new allegations. The operative claims presented in the complaint primarily concern Plaintiff's challenge to his incarceration based on charges stemming from his unspecified violations of the ACNA. Plaintiff may not change the nature of this suit by adding new claims in his objections. Thus, even if there were any merit to Plaintiff's conclusory claims concerning bond and access to the law library, the Defendants named to this action (Attorney General Strange, the PSC Director, and Sheriff Jones) would not be responsible for those matters. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 20(a)(2) (defendants may be joined in one action as defendants if any right to relief is asserted against them arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences); Fed.R.Civ.P. 18(a) (allowing multiple claims against opposing party but not multiple unrelated claims against different defendants.)

For the above reasons, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. The court ADOPTS the Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge.
2. Plaintiff's request for a preliminary injunction (Doc. #2) is DENIED.
3. Plaintiff's federal claims are DISMISSED without prejudice pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii).

4. To the extent that the Complaint asserts state law claims for relief, such claims are DISMISSED without prejudice.

5. The Complaint is DISMISSED prior to service of process.

DONE this 8th day of March, 2012.
