JIMMY KILGORE, et al.,	}

Respondents.	}

MEMORANDUM OPINION

On November 23, 2017, Mr. McKinney filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus pertaining to his pretrial detention in the Talladega County Jail. (Doc. 1, pp. 1, 5-7, 20). The respondents answered on January 2, 2018 and moved to dismiss Mr. McKinney's claims as unexhausted. (Doc. 4, p. 5).

On January 3, 2018, the magistrate judge assigned to this case ordered Mr. McKinney to show cause why the Court should not dismiss this case. (Doc. 5, p. 1). On August 29, 2018, the magistrate judge recommended that the Court dismiss this action without prejudice because Mr. McKinney did not exhaust state court remedies before he filed his federal habeas petition. (Doc. 6, p. 6). The magistrate judge notified Mr. McKinney of his right to object to the recommendation. (Doc. 6, pp. 6-7).

To date, Mr. McKinney has not objected to the magistrate judge's report and recommendation. Mr. McKinney also has not requested additional time to file objections.<sup>1</sup>

A district court "may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate judge." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). A district court reviews legal conclusions in a report de novo and reviews for plain error factual findings to which no objection is made. Garvey v. Vaughn, 993 F.2d 776, 779 n. 9 (11th Cir. 1993); see also LoConte v. Dugger, 847 F.2d 745, 749 (11th Cir. 1988); Macort v. Prem, Inc., 208 Fed. Appx. 781, 784 (11th Cir. 2006).

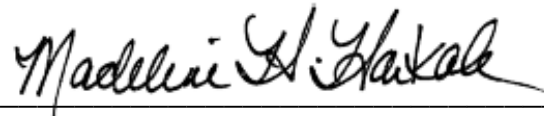

Based on its review of the record in this case, the Court finds no errors in the magistrate judge's report. Therefore, the Court adopts the magistrate judge's report and accepts his recommendation. The Court will issue a separate dismissal order consistent with this memorandum opinion.

The Court directs the Clerk to please mail a copy of this order to Mr. McKinney at his address of record in this case and at his address of record in case number 18-787 (see Doc. 34).

<sup>1</sup> In a separate § 1983 action that Mr. McKinney filed in this Court, Mr. McKinney recently advised the Court that he was about to be released from jail. McKinney v. Kilgore, 17-787, Doc. 34 (dated October 5, 2018). Mr. McKinney should have received the magistrate judge's report in this habeas case before he was released from jail. The United States Postal Service has not returned the report to the Court.
