<sup>1</sup> Rule 62(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that “[i]f a judgment is a lien on the judgment debtor’s property under the law of the state where the court is located, the judgment debtor is entitled to the same stay of execution the state court would give.” Fed. R.Civ.P. Rule 62(f) (emphasis added). In Alabama, “[t]he owner of any judgment entered in any court of this state or of the United States held in this state may file in the office of the judge of probate of any county of this state a certificate of the clerk or register of the court by which the judgment was entered . . . .” Ala. Code § 6-9-210 (1975). In Alabama, “every judgment, a certificate of which has been filed as provided in Section 6-9-210, shall be a lien in the county where filed on all property of the defendant which is subject to levy and sale under execution . . . . The filing of said certificate of judgment, as provided in Section 6-9-210, shall be notice to all persons of the existence of the lien thereby created.” Ala. Code § 6-9-211 (1975 (emphasis added)).
