/s/ Callie V. S. Granade
SENIOR UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

¹ The Clerk's Office advised the Court that Plaintiff telephoned the Clerk's Office on April 25, 2017, and advised that he had been released. The Clerk explained to the Plaintiff that he needed to file a written notice of change of address, and that the Report and Recommendation had been entered. The Clerk further read portions of the recommendation to Plaintiff at his request. Plaintiff did not notify the Court of his address, but because he was told what the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge was in this case the Court finds that the Plaintiff has had sufficient notice of the Report and Recommendation.
