ORDER FROM CHAMBERS
REGARDING
DISCOVERY PLAN
and
PRETRIAL MOTION SCHEDULE

This criminal case charges defendant with theft, fraud and misapplication from an organization receiving federal funds and money laundering.

Trial in this case is currently set for June 11, 2012. The case was declared complex by District Court Judge Timothy Burgess on February 24, 2012. Docket 47.

It is the purpose of this order to set a time table for the government's production of designated categories of discovery so further litigation will not be needed. It is the intent of the Court to avoid unnecessary delay in the production of discovery. The parties should continue to work together to provide available discovery to the defense expeditiously and economically. The defendant should avoid filing boiler plate discovery motions where the matter can be resolved by meeting and conferring with the government attorney.

The Pretrial Motion Schedule is binding on all counsel in this case unless otherwise ordered. This order is not subject to amendment by the parties without Court approval. The deadlines set below present the latest dates on which the government has to produce evidence relevant to that category. In the spirit of continued cooperation the Court expects the government to provide discovery prior to those dates when feasible. The government will keep a list of discovery provided to the defendant and the date it was produced.

Discovery and Inspection Plan

1. Defendant's oral, written or recorded statements as described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 (a)(1)(A) and (B) disclosed by the government are due March 1, 2012.

2. Defendant's prior record as described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D) due by March 1, 2012.

3. All documents and objects as described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 (A)(1)(E), shall be produced by the government by March 1, 2012.

4. Documents and tangible evidence, as well as oral statements, or other evidence which tends to exculpate a defendant; or is favorable or useful to the defense on the issues of guilt or punishment; or is otherwise subject to disclosure as exculpatory material pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972) is due no later than May 3, 2012.

5. The government will notify defendant by March 10, 2012 of its intent to use statements of co-conspirators and the government will identify those statements as specifically as possible by March 10, 2012.

6. The government will identify any experts it intends to use in its case-in-chief pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 702, 703 and 705 by April 27, 2012.

7. The defendant will identify any experts they intend to use at trial pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 702, 703 and 705 by May 15, 2012.

8. Government expert reports and summary of expert testimony during the case-in-chief pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 (A)(1)(G) shall be produced by the government by May 8, 2012.

9. Defendant expert reports shall be produced by the defense to the government by May 8, 2012.

10. Government reports of examinations and tests as described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 (a)(1)(F), excluding the expert reports described above, to be produced by the government, May 8, 2012.

11. Defense reports of examinations and tests, as described in Fed. R. Crim. 16 (b)(1)(B), excluding the expert reports described above, shall be disclosed by May 15, 2012.

12. Defense documents and objects as described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 (b)(1)(A) shall be disclosed or made available for inspection by the government by March 10, 2012.

13. Evidence of other crimes, wrongs or acts the government seeks to use at any time during the trial pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) shall be disclosed on or before March 10, 2012.

14. Evidence of conviction of a crime which the government seeks to introduce at trial pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 609 shall be disclosed on or before May 31, 2012.

The government is directed to certify that all discovery required by law and this Order has been provided to the defense by May 31, 2012.

Pretrial Motions Deadlines

	Motion Deadline	Response Deadline
Motions related to discovery	March 1, 2012	March 8, 2012
Motion challenging the indictment or statutes involved; motions for bill of particulars	March 1, 2012	March 8, 2012
Motions to suppress evidence; motion to disclose confidential informants; motions challenging admissibility of evidence	March 15, 2012	March 26, 2012
Motions to sever; motions in limine	March 22, 2012	March 30, 2012
Motions related to experts	May 4, 2012	May 11, 2012

Given the lengthy time provided by the trial court for the completion of discovery and presentation of pretrial issues, no continuances of the pretrial motions due dates will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances.

Further Disclosures

All disclosures required by the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500, shall be produced by the government no later than June 1, 2012.

Both the government and defense have a continuing duty to disclose any additional evidence or material discovered before or during trial if the federal rules or this Court's order requires its production. Such evidence must be promptly disclosed to the other party or the Court.

If a party fails to comply with this discovery order, the Court may order that discovery or inspection occur by a certain date and in a certain manner; grant a continuance; prohibit the offending party from introducing the undisclosed evidence at trial; or enter any other order that is just under the circumstances.

DATED this 28th day of February, 2012, at Anchorage, Alaska.
