14	Defendant.	)

15 COMES NOW, the Plaintiff, the United States of America, by and through its 16 attorneys, DIANE J. HUMETEWA, United States Attorney for the District of Arizona, and 17 Kimberly E. Hopkins, Assistant United States Attorney, and hereby acknowledges the receipt
18 of the final copy of the Pre-Sentence Report in the above-captioned matter. Sentencing in 19 this matter is currently set for July 14, 2009, before this Honorable Court.

20 The United States concurs with the probation officer’s report, analysis and calculation
21 of the Sentencing Guidelines, as well as the recommendation contained therein. The 22 Government particularly concurs with the recommended sentence of 46 months
23 imprisonment because it is an appropriate sanction given the defendant has accumulated a
24 total of 8 criminal history points and is a Criminal History Category IV. A sentence of 46
25 months is an appropriate sentence that would provide just punishment and hopefully deter

26 //

1 this defendant from ever returning to the United States. Based on the defendant's prior
2 criminal history, it is apparent that a lesser sentence has not deterred him from returning.

4 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 13th day of July, 2009.
