IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Allan Kenneth Morgal,)	No. CV 07-670-PHX-RCB (ECV)
Plaintiff,)	ORDER vs.)
Maricopa County Board of Supervisors,) Defendant.)

Defendant has filed a Renewed Motion for Summary Judgment (Doc. #142) pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

NOTICE--WARNING TO PLAINTIFF

THIS NOTICE IS REQUIRED TO BE GIVEN TO YOU BY THE COURT¹

The Defendant’s Motion for Summary Judgment seeks to have your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact – that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter

1 of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary
2 judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot 3 simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in 4 declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided
5 in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the Defendant's declarations and documents
6 and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your 7 own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you.
8 If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

9 Rule 56.1(b) of the Local Rules of Civil Procedure also requires that you include with 10 your response to the Renewed Motion for Summary Judgment a separate statement of facts 11 in opposition to the Renewed Motion for Summary Judgment. Your separate statement of 12 facts must include numbered paragraphs corresponding to the Defendant's ("moving 13 party's") separate statement of facts:

14 (b) Any party opposing a motion for summary judgment shall file a 15 statement, separate from that party's memorandum of law, setting forth: (1) for 16 each paragraph of the moving party's separate statement of facts, a 17 correspondingly numbered paragraph indicating whether the party disputes the 18 statement of fact set forth in that paragraph and a reference to the specific 19 admissible portion of the record supporting the party's position [for example, 20 affidavit, deposition, discovery response, etc.] if the fact is disputed; and 21 (2) any additional facts that establish a genuine issue of material fact or 22 otherwise preclude judgment in favor of the moving party. Each additional 23 fact shall be set forth in a separately numbered paragraph and shall refer to a 24 specific admissible portion of the record where the fact finds support. Each 25 numbered paragraph of the statement of facts set forth in the moving party's 26 separate statement of facts shall, unless otherwise ordered, be deemed admitted
27 for purposes of the motion for summary judgment if not specifically 28 controverted by a correspondingly numbered paragraph in the opposing party's separate statement of facts.

LRCiv 56.1(b). You must also cite to the specific paragraph in your statement of facts that supports any factual claims you make in your memorandum of law:

(e) Memoranda of law filed in support of or in opposition to a motion for summary judgment, including reply memoranda, shall include citations to the specific paragraph in the statement of facts that supports factual assertions made in the memoranda.

LR.Civ 56.1(e).

Additionally, Rule 7.2(e) of the Local Rules of Civil Procedure provides:

1 Unless otherwise permitted by the Court, a motion including its supporting
2 memorandum, and the response including its supporting memorandum, each
3 shall not exceed seventeen (17) pages, exclusive of attachments and any 4 required statement of facts. Unless otherwise permitted by the Court, a reply
5 including its supporting memorandum shall not exceed eleven (11) pages,
6 exclusive of attachments.

7 LRCiv 7.2(e). Finally, Rule 7.2(i) of the Local Rules of Civil Procedure provides:

8 If a motion does not conform in all substantial respects with the requirements
9 of this Local Rule, or if the unrepresented party or counsel does not serve and 10 file the required answering memoranda, or if the unrepresented party or 11 counsel fails to appear at the time and place assigned for oral argument, such 12 non-compliance may be deemed a consent to the denial or granting of the 13 motion and the Court may dispose of the motion summarily.

14 LRCiv 7.2(i).

15 You must timely respond to all motions. The Court may, in its discretion, treat your 16 failure to respond to Defendant's Renewed Motion for Summary Judgment as a consent to 17 the granting of that Motion without further notice, and judgment may be entered dismissing 18 this action with prejudice pursuant to Rule 7.2(i) of the Local Rules of Civil Procedure. See 19 Brydges v. Lewis, 18 F.3d 651 (9th Cir. 1994) (per curiam).

20 IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff must file a response to Defendant's Renewed Motion
21 for Summary Judgment, together with a separate Statement of Facts and supporting affidavits 22 or other appropriate exhibits, no later than April 23, 2012.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants may file a reply within 15 days after 24 service of Plaintiff's response.

25 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Motion for Summary Judgment will be 26 deemed ready for decision without oral argument on the day following the date set for filing 27 a reply unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

28 DATED this 23rd day of March, 2012.

Edward C. Voss
United States Magistrate Judge
