Before the Court is Defendant USAPA’s Motion to Strike Plaintiffs’ Reply in Support
25 of Their Motion for Class Certification (doc. # 217), which contends that the reply was filed 26 late on February 27, 2009. The Court previously granted USAPA’s contested motion for 27 extension of time to file its response. (Doc. # 155.) USAPA now contends that because its 28 extension was granted and the order said nothing about extending Plaintiffs’ time for reply,

1 Plaintiffs were required to file a reply in accordance with the original briefing schedule, as 2 though USAPA had not been granted an extension on its response. This is a wholly 3 unreasonable view of the extension order, which did not purport to override the terms of 4 Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(d) and LRCiv 7.2(d), giving a moving party five days—plus three days for 5 service other than personal delivery—to reply to a response brief. The Court’s mistaken 6 reference in passing in doc. # 210 to February 26 as the close of briefing, rather than the 7 correct date of February 27, 2009, does not shorten Plaintiff’s time. That subsequent order 8 relating to the possibility of an evidentiary hearing grants no such relief (doc. # 210 at p. 2, 9 lines 3-20).

10 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant USAPA’s Motion to Strike Plaintiffs’ 11 Reply in Support of Their Motion for Class Certification (doc. # 217) is denied.

12 DATED this 2nd day of March, 2009.
