Where America Tans

THE DIRTY ARMY:Nik, This is the President/Owner of one of the largest tanning chains in the country, The Tan Company. He uses his money to buy c*caine and big boats to drive underage girls around. I guess The Tan Company wasn't screwing people out of enough money to support his dr*g and pedofile habit, so he caused an explosion and burnt his house down for insurance money. The entire corporate staff got pregant within the last couple of years most likely by him (luckily none of the kids turned out retarded considering how many lines they snorted on lunch breaks), including his wife but he was too busy having sex with the VP down at the Osage Beach store opening while his wife frantically called his cell because she was in labor. Where was your wife when you were kissing this young girl, Todd? Tan away St. Louis, just try not to get aids. And another hint for the successful businessman, maybe you should tell your fat Rask employees not to post inappropriate pictures of you on their myspace just so they feel "cool" that they are part of your minimum wage corporate cult. TAN WITH THE BEST! .

Typical trout, I give him 3 months before he files for Chapter 11.- nik

He makes a ton of money committing insurance fraud. Lets see how many of his motorcycles have been "stolen", how many of his boats have "sunk" at the lake? The house was the best of all. Hey Todd do you have a valid drivers license yet?

WOW!! This is all VERY true. Everyone in his office and all his friends know he blew up his own house and had his little meth-addicted buddy do it.....I heard Nicole punched the girl in the face when she found out about one of the many wh*res he was banging. I also heard the bankruptcy pending is true. Great time for a good slam on someone who has stolen money from a bunch of people for years. And FAT RASK is right. So fat. Such a cult follower.

I used to work for this idiot when he owned the four Gold's gyms in St. Louis at the time. This is all %100 true. I was working for him when he sold the gyms over to Gold's Gym International, making them corporate. He threw a huge party with all the employees and was coked out all night. That night he got charged with a DWI and possession of a controlled substance. He showed up at the Dorsett Gold's at around 10 am the next day obliterated, with a woman other than his wife in the passenger seat of his yellow hummer, and went to the safe in Tan Co and Golds to get money out.

Is this about the guy in the picture or about the Rask girls? Seriously, you must be so jealous of these girls if you find it necessary to bring them up on a website like this. I actually feel sorry for you. The only reason you even posted this picture is probably because he banged you and then left you for some other b*tch. Get over yourself. It's your fault, you screwed him.

So the "Biggest Middled Aged Douche Bag" finally gets whats coming to him. Not a bad idea for a reality show huh Todd ??
Im sure you'd be cast no problem. News Flash ... Your 45, not 25 !! Go home your a father of 2, married with a semi-successful business, and only successful because of a handful people within the company, and not because of you - and your dumbass fired most of them, your f*cking brilliant !!!!
Maybe your daughters end up in the bottom of someone else's boat gettin' drilled by some old wrinky middle aged douche bag. Funny thing is, you think your the sh*t, but your actually the one that everyone points at and laughs at.
I love it.
