11 Plaintiff,)	ORDER
12 vs.)
13 Premier Healthcare Services, LLC., et al.,)
14 Defendants.)

15

16 On June 8, 2010, this Court dismissed Plaintiff’s claims against the Secretary of the 17 Treasury and the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration with prejudice.
18 Doc. 30. On July 12, 2010, Plaintiff filed a motion for reconsideration. Doc. 34. Under 19 Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.2(g)(2), “[a]bsent good cause shown, any motion for 20 reconsideration shall be filed no later than fourteen (14) days after the date of the filing of 21 the Order that is the subject of the motion.” Plaintiff’s motion is untimely, does not show
22 good cause, and therefore will be denied.

23 The Court also notes that Plaintiff wrote a lengthy letter to the Court dated June 27-28,
24 2010. The letter does not appear to have been sent to opposing counsel. The letter takes 25 issue with the Court’s decisions and urges the Court to do justice. Such letters are not 26 appropriate. Plaintiff may request relief in this or other cases only by filing a motion in 27 conformity with the federal and local rules of civil procedure.
