12 AND PRODUCTS LIABILITY
13 LITIGATION

No. 09-md-02096-PHX-FJM

14 RULE 54(b) JUDGMENT, FINAL
15 ORDER AND DECREE

16
17 THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO:
18 All Economic Injury Actions.

19 This matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Approval 20 of Class Action Settlement and Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs (doc. 1422).
21 After review and consideration of the Settlement Agreement entered into by the Parties,
22 and after hearing argument of the parties at the Final Approval Hearing held on May 27,
23 2011 and there being no objections and no opt-outs,

24 IT IS HEREBY ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

25 1. This Judgment incorporates by reference the definitions in the Amended 26 Settlement Agreement dated February 23, 2011 ("Settlement Agreement") (doc. 1358), 27 and all terms used in this order have the same meaning as set forth in the Settlement
28 Agreement unless otherwise stated.

2. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and all Parties to the action, including all Settlement Class Members.

1 3. Pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3), Fed. R. Civ. P., the Court hereby certifies the 2 following Settlement Class:

3 All persons in the United States who purchased Zicam Cold Remedy Nasal
4 Spray, Zicam Cold Remedy Swabs, and/or Zicam Cold Remedy Swabs
5 (kids size) for personal, family or household use between January 1, 1999
6 and October 19, 2010 and claim that the products were not safe. Excluded 7 from the class are all persons who suffered bodily injury arising from the 8 use of these products.

9 4. Pursuant to Rule 23(a), Fed. R. Civ. P., the Court finds that the Class
10 Representatives listed in Exhibit 2 to the Settlement Agreement are members of the Class,
11 their claims are typical of the Class, and they fairly and adequately protected the interests 12 of the Class throughout the proceedings in the Litigation. Accordingly, the Court hereby 13 appoints those persons listed in Exhibit 2 to the Settlement Agreement as class 14 representatives.

15 5. Further, the Court finds that the Settlement Class meets all the requirements 16 of Rule 23(a) and (b)(3), Fed. R. Civ. P., for certification of the class claims alleged in the 17 First Consolidated Amended Economic Injury Class Action Complaint, including: (a) 18 numerosity; (b) commonality; (c) typicality; (d) adequacy of the class representatives and 19 Class Counsel; (e) predominance of common questions of fact and law among the Class 20 for purposes of settlement; and (f) superiority.

21 6. Having considered the factors set forth in Rule 23(g)(1), Fed. R. Civ. P., the 22 Court finds that Class Counsel have fairly and adequately represented the Class for 23 purposes of entering into and implementing the settlement, and thus, hereby appoints 24 Class Counsel as counsel to represent the Settlement Class Members.

25 7. Pursuant to Rule 23(e)(2), Fed. R. Civ. P., the Court finds based upon all 26 submissions of the Parties, the settlement proposed by the Parties is fair, reasonable, and 27 adequate. The terms and provisions of the Settlement Agreement are the product of 28 protracted, arms-length negotiations conducted in good faith and with the assistance of an experienced mediator, United States Magistrate Judge David K. Duncan, and numerous follow up conversations and negotiations between the parties. Approval of the Settlement

1 Agreement will result in substantial savings of time, money and effort to the Court and the 2 Parties, and will further the interests of justice.

3 8. Neither the Settlement, this Judgment or the fact of the Settlement 4 constitutes any admission by any of the Parties of any liability, wrongdoing or violation of 5 law, damages or lack thereof, of the validity or invalidity of any claim or defense asserted 6 in the Litigation.

7 9. The Court has considered the submissions by the Parties and all other 8 relevant factors, including the result achieved and the efforts of Class Counsel in 9 prosecuting the claims on behalf of the Class. Plaintiffs initiated the Litigation, acted to 10 protect the Class, and assisted their counsel. The efforts of Class Counsel have produced 11 the Settlement Agreement entered into in good faith, and which provides a fair, 12 reasonable, adequate and certain result for the Class. Class Counsel is entitled to 13 reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses for their work incurred in this Litigation, in the 14 amount of $150,000, an amount that Defendants agree to pay.

15 10. If any of the Zicam Cold Remedy Intra-Nasal Products are re-introduced to 16 the market and sold by Defendants in the U.S., they will be labeled and bear any language 17 regarding adverse effects as required by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration ("FDA").

18 11. Prior to re-introduction of any Zicam Cold Remedy Intra-Nasal Products to 19 the market in the U.S., Defendant Matrixx Initiatives, Inc. will provide to Plaintiffs' Co-
20 Lead Class Counsel 30 days advance notification, by certified mail, of the proposed 21 labeling of such products, to enable Plaintiffs to ensure Defendants' compliance with the 22 agreed-upon labeling language.

23 12. Plaintiffs requested, and Defendants did not oppose, and the Court thereby 24 orders that all efficacy claims in the First Consolidated Amended Economic Injury Class
25 Action Complaint be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Rules 41(a)(2) and 23(e), 26 Fed. R. Civ. P. Efficacy claims will be resolved in Hohman v. Matrixx Initiatives, Inc.,
27 No. CV-09-3693, pending in the Northern District of Illinois. They will not be refiled
28 here. The Court hereby dismisses with prejudice the remainder of Plaintiffs' safety claims

1 in each of the following economic injury actions, and each of the following actions in this 2 MDL is dismissed:
